

Other Related OTA Reports

- Linking for Learning: A New Course for Education. Analyzes various technological options to link learners, and to create new neighbors among schools, classrooms, teachers, students, and other members of the community; examines current developments in distance learning and identifies new roles for teachers and new opportunities for their professional development; analyzes how Federal, State, and local policies could encourage more efficient and effective use of telecommunications technologies for distance learning; and provides a State-by-State profile of distance education activities.

Free summary available from OTA.

GPO stock #052-003-01170-1; $9.00 per copy

NTIS order #PB 90-156 969/AS

- * Health Care in Rural America. Reviews and evaluates past and current rural health care efforts; examines how medical technologies have been and might be diffused into rural areas; and identifies policies that might improve the quality, affordability, and accessibility of rural health. OTA-H-434, 9/90; 540p.

GPO stock #052-003-01205-7; $22.00 per copy

NTIS order #PB 91-104 927/AS

- Rural Emergency Medical Services-Special Report. Describes the availability and distribution of emergency medical service resources, and examines how limited Federal resources can be used to improve rural EMS. OTA-H-445, 11/89; 108 p.

GPO stock #052-003-01173-5; $4.75 per copy

NTIS order #PB 90-159 047/AS

- Defining Rural Areas: Impact on Health Care Policy and Research-Staff Paper. Examines and identifies health service needs of rural subpopulations. 7/89, 68p.

GPO stock #052-003-01156-5; $3.25 per copy

NTIS order #PB 89-224 646/AS

- Critical Connections: Communication for the Future. Explores new communication technologies and the intricacies of coordinating them; identifies the potential for meeting changing communication goals and needs; discusses conflicts that might stem from development and use; and examines new communications systems abroad and their relationships to the U.S. system. OTA-CIT-407, 1/90; 408 p.

Free summary available from OTA.

GPO stock #052-003-01143-3; $17.00 per copy

NTIS order #PB 90-182 742/AS

- Delivering the Goods: Public Works Technologies, Management, & Financing. Evaluates innovative technologies in public works construction, operation, and maintenance, with specific attention to the needs of small systems; assesses limits to solving problems through technology and nontechnological alternatives; identifies major changes in the Federal role to encourage more efficient and productive public works systems; and identifies changes to Federal program management and financing to lead to more efficient public works infrastructure. OTA-SET-477, 4/91; 230p.

Summary available from OTA.

GPO stock #052-003-012294; $12.00 per copy

- Rebuilding the Foundations: State and Local Public Works Financing and Management—Special Report. Explores how technologies, management, and financing could improve State and local public works and make them more efficient and productive. Outlines the roles of Federal, State, and local governments and points to avenues for strengthening the intergovernmental structure for managing and financing public works. OTA-SET-447, 3/90; 140 p.

GPO stock #052-003-01 179-4; $6.50 per copy

NTIS order #PB 90-254 152/AS

- . Informing the Nation: Federal Information Dissemination in an Electronic Age. Identifies and describes the current institutional base for Federal dissemination of public information; assesses the current technological base and future technical developments; evaluates present and future public information needs and how technology might help meet such needs; and identifies and analyzes key issues and options. OTA-CIT-396, 10/88; 344 p.

GPO stock #052-003-01130-1; $14.00 per copy
NTIS order #PB 89-114 243/AS

- . Technology and the American Economic Transition: Choices for the Future. Analyzes changes to the American economy by examining products and services, the effects of new technology on society and the economy, and national policy decisions that maybe needed to exploit the opportunities technology can offer and protect the country from potential adverse consequences. OTA-TET-283, 5/88; 512 p.

Free summary available from OTA.
NTIS order #PB 88-214 127/AS

- Worker Training: Competing in the New International Economy. Explores the connections between new workplace technology, employee training, and competitiveness. Examines the national investment in training of active work forces; the delivery system for employee training; instructional technology and research needs in work force training; employee training and adjustment to technological change; demographic changes in the work force and their implications for training; and employee training in countries that are major industrial competitors of the United States. OTA-ITE-457, 9/90; 290p.

Free summary available from OTA.
GPO stock #052-003-O1214-6; $12.00 per copy
NTIS order #PB 91-106 716/AS

- . Technology and Structural Unemployment: Reemploying Displaced Adults. Assesses the reasons and outlook for adult displacement, evaluates the performance of programs to serve displaced adults, and identifies options to improve service. The report also examines trends in international trade and their effects on worker displacement. OTA-ITE-250, 2/86; 448 p.

Free summary available from OTA,
NTIS order #PB 86-206 174/AS

- . Plant Closing: Advance Notice and Rapid Responses-Special Report. Explores the benefits and costs of advance notice for plant closings and permanent layoffs and examines the ability of public agencies to provide worker adjustment services rapidly and effectively when employers do give notice. OTA-ITE-321, 9/86; 68 p.

NTIS order #PB 87-118 212/AS

- Displaced Homemakers: Programs and Policy—Interim Report. Focuses on problems and performance of Federal support for displaced homemakers. OTA-ITE-292, 10/85; 44p.

NTIS order #PB 86-120 276/AS

- Networking the Nation: The National Research and Education Network. This study assesses the issues surrounding data networking for science and the potential for such networks to serve the broader needs of education. In progress.

NOTE: Reports are available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402-9325, (202) 783-3238; and/or the National Technical Information Service, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161-0001, (703) 487-4650.