

Contents

- 1 Purposes of the Background Paper 2
 - Evolution of Performance-Based Accountability in Federal Vocational Education Law 4
 - Testing and Assessment Resources in Vocational Education 6
 - Current State Assessment Policies in Vocational Education 11
 - Emerging State Responses to Perkins Performance Standards 14
 - Defining and Assessing Broad Technical Skills 17
- 2 The Evolution of Performance-Based Accountability Requirements in Federal Vocational Education Law 21
 - The Current Requirements 22
 - Legislative History 26
 - Changing Themes 32
- 3 State Policies on Testing and Assessment 35
 - Design and Methodology of the State Survey 37
 - Origins of Testing and Assessment Policy in Vocational Education 38
 - Differences Among the States in Policy on Testing and Assessment 41
 - State Resources for Testing and Assessment 42
 - What Skills are Assessed? 44
 - Where in the Curriculum are the Skills Assessed? 48
 - Why are the Skills Assessed? 51
 - What Form of Measurement is Used? 53
 - How are Practices of Testing and Assessment Changing? 55
 - What Skills Will Be Assessed? 59
- 4 Case Studies: Three Vendors of Tests for Occupational Competencies 67
 - Work Keys 67
 - Vocational-Technical Education Consortium of the States 72
 - National Occupational Competency Testing Institute 76
 - Findings 80

5	Broad Technical Skills	83
	Vocational Aptitudes	84
	Occupational Maps	91
	Core Occupational Skills	94
	Design and Technology	95
	Cognitive Skills	97
	Final Note	101
6	Implementation of Performance Standards and Measures	103
	Technical Assistance Efforts	104
	ED Regulations and Monitoring	105
	Research and Demonstration	107
	Business and Education Standards	107
	Goals 2000: Educate America Act	108
	Conclusion	109

APPENDICES

A	Legislative Milestones Influencing Accountability in Federal Vocational Education Programs	111
B	List of Acronyms	114

Photographs supplied by the American Vocational Association and Future Business Leaders of America.