ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A number of people deserve thanks and recognition for their contributions to this report. We thank the officers and employees of the wheelchair manufacturing and distributing firms for participating in our survey. As we promised them confidentiality, we cannot thank them by name. We appreciate the suggestions and assistance of Jane Sisk, Cynthia King, Jack Langenbrunner, and Katherine Locke of the Office of Technology Assessment (OTA). Mr. A. Malachi Mixon, III, President of Invacare Corp., and his associates, kindly provided data for the two case studies. We thank the following wheelchair users, researchers, government officials, and insurers who generously provided their time and expertise to us directly or as reviewers for OTA.
