The Princeton American Indian Studies Working Group presents

Tiya Miles
University of Michigan, History and Native American Studies, Chair, Department of Afroamerican and African Studies, Director, Mapping Slavery in Detroit and the Vann House Public History Project

in Conversation with

Martha Sandweiss
Princeton University, History, Director of the Princeton and Slavery Project

Thursday, March 6, 2014
4:30 PM • Robertson Hall, Woodrow Wilson School, Bowl 001

Co-Sponsored by the Program in American Studies, the Center for African American Studies, the Center for Human Values, and the Department of English