The Princeton University Summer Day Camp

is designed for children ages 6-13. The camper's day will be filled with a variety of sports, games, arts and crafts, and camp activities that will keep your camper active and engaged throughout the week. Each camp provides programs and trips for their specific age group.

All campers are given a camp T-shirt and bag.

Junior Camp (ages 6-10)

- Must be 6 by June 18, 2012
- Swim Lessons and Free Swim Daily
- Divided into groups by age: 6's, 7/8's, and 9/10's
- Wednesdays - Field Trip or Special Event Days
- Fridays - Free Pizza and Ice Cream!!

Senior Camp (ages 11-13)

- Free Swim Daily
- Tuesdays - trip to beach with surf lessons*
*surf lessons are every other Tuesday
- Thursdays - Field Trip or Special Event Days
- Fridays - Free Pizza and Ice Cream!!

Counselor In Training (ages 14-17)

Too Old to be a Camper but Too Young to be a Counselor? Get a head start on developing important job skills during an active week of learning games and leadership skills. For one week, CIT's will assist counselors in the Junior Camp during camp activities and on field trips. Individuals must complete an application and interview process before being considered for the program. Participants will also be required to attend a CIT training program. Limited spaces are available on a weekly basis for this program.

Application Deadline - Fri, April 20, 2012

Summer Camp Staff

Our Head Counselors, who are full-time teachers, coordinate the Summer Day Camp program, and are responsible for the direct oversight of the campers and camp counselor staff. All of our general counselors are ages 18 and over, have been trained in CPR/First Aid, and will make sure your camper has a memorable experience with us. There is a Health Director on site for all medical emergencies in order to create the safest and most enjoyable experience for the children.
