

Dear Center Stage Program Board Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in being a part of the Center Stage Program Board for the Frist Campus Center. This is an excellent opportunity for you to be involved and develop your creative and organizational skills. We are excited about making this an enjoyable learning experience for you!

The Center Stage Program Board is a volunteer student organization of the Frist Campus Center. Center Stage serves the University by providing cultural, educational and recreational programs which broaden the social experience at Princeton and further Frist Campus Center's mission to build community. As a member of the Center Stage Program Board, you will brainstorm programming ideas with other members, create strategies for implementing these ideas and help develop innovative ways to market them.

Center Stage seeks to:

- Provide a diverse set of social, cultural and educational activities
- Foster productive collaboration between various University organizations
- Develop a set of activities that offer a wide range of social options

Making a commitment to Center Stage means:

- Actively promoting community and upholding cooperative team spirit
- Attending planning meetings and brainstorming sessions
- Sitting on ad-hoc committees when necessary
- Attendance and support of event, recruiting volunteers and ensuring that projects run smoothly

What Skills/Characteristics do I need?

- Open mindedness and adaptability
- Accessible, hospitable attitude
- Proven ability to work on a team
- Good organizational and interpersonal skills
- Ability to have fun

Please complete the application and return it to Amanda Zeltner in Frist 306 or email azeltner@princeton.edu by October 7, 2011. You will be contacted for an interview to be scheduled the week of October 10th.

Once your application is received, you will be contacted to meet with me to discuss your application. If you have any questions, please contact me at 8-0382 or via email azeltner@princeton.edu.

I look forward to meeting with you!

Sincerely,

Amanda Zeltner
