

IHUM OPEN HOUSE and BOOK LAUNCH

Tuesday, December 5, 2017
Prospect House, Drawing Room
5:30 - 8:00 PM

Please join us from 5:30-6:30pm for an informal opportunity to learn about IHUM and speak to current fellows and faculty affiliated with the Program.

From 6:30-8pm we will celebrate the publication of Keywords; For Further Consideration and Particularly Relevant to Academic Life, Especially as it Concerns Disciplines, Inter-Disciplinary Endeavor, and Modes of Resistance to the Same. Published by Princeton University Press, the book emerged out of a collaboration originating in the seminar “Interdisciplinarity and Antidisciplinarity” taught by D. Graham Burnett last spring.
