

SEPTEMBER

Tuesday, September 12, 10:30 p.m.–Midnight LGBT Pride Alliance Ice Cream Social

LGBT Center, Frist 246
Come to the Pride Alliance's annual kick-off event to welcome new students. Find out more about the Pride Alliance and enjoy delicious ice cream sundaes.
Sponsored by the Pride Alliance.

Thursday, September 14, 4–5:30 p.m. LGBT Grad Reception

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Join us for a welcome reception for new and returning graduate students.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and Office of the Graduate School.

Friday, September 15, 4–6 p.m. Welcome Back BBQ

Fields Center Courtyard
Welcome our new students and our new year. This is a great chance to meet people and enjoy our fabulous cookout.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center, Pride Alliance, and Queer Graduate Caucus.

Tuesday, September 19, Noon–1:30 p.m. Being LGBT at Princeton

Frist 243
Join us for a lunch discussion about the LGBT campus community, the resources we provide, and what it is like to be “out of the closet” at Princeton. Lunch provided.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and LGBT Peer Educators.

Tuesday, September 19, 3–4 p.m. Drop-in-Hours for the LGBT Community

McCosh Health Center, Room 118
Drop in the third Tuesday every other month to discuss sexual health (HIV, sexuality, STIs, pelvic exams) in a confidential LGBT-friendly environment. Ask for Olga Hernandez.
Sponsored by University Health Services.

Wednesday, September 20, 5–6:30 p.m. A Gay Literary Career with Edmund White

Frist 234
Legendary gay novelist and professor of creative writing, Edmund White will speak about his career and his recent autobiography, My Lives. This program is the kick-off to the LGBT Seminar Series, which features Princeton faculty speaking about their work. Reception to follow in the LGBT Center.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and Program in Creative Writing.

Friday, September 22, Noon The Best of the Best: Princeton Ranked a Top 20 School For LGBT Students

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Princeton is the best at everything else. Why not be a top school for LGBT students, too? In The Advocate's new college guide, Princeton is listed among the very best schools in the nation for LGBT students. Come hear about how the ranking was determined and why Princeton is among the “best of the best.” Lunch will be provided.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Students.

Saturday, September 23, 2 p.m. The Honorable James McGreevey

Princeton University Store, 3rd Floor
Former New Jersey governor James McGreevey will discuss his experiences as an out politician in one of the nation's highest political offices. Having come out while in office, McGreevey has recently published an autobiography, The Confession. Copies will be available for purchase.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and Princeton University Store.

Monday, September 25, 3:30–5 p.m. Bisexual Day Celebration

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Come celebrate Bisexual Day at the LGBT Center. We will have a fabulous bisexual flag cake, trivia, and lots of fun. If you are an ally to the bi community, please come out and show your support. Festive food and drink will be provided.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and LGBT Peer Educators.

Tuesday, September 26, 7–8:30 p.m. Coming OUT Politically

Betts Auditorium
In this major election year, come hear an all-star panel speak about coming out politically. Panelists will discuss coming out as a voter (and a candidate), becoming involved in different political parties, and important LGBT issues in the November election, as well as offer their predictions. Panelists include: Becca Ahjuha, National Gay and Lesbian Task Force; Robin Brand, Victory Fund; Steven Goldstein, Garden State Equality; and Jesse Levey, Log Cabin Republicans.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center, College Democrats, College Republicans, and Garden State Equality.

Friday, September 29, 8–10 p.m. QGC Wine and Cheese Social

Hibben Apartments, Apt. 5Q
This is the occasion to (re-)connect with those returning to campus, the ones that never left, and of course those debuting at Princeton. Hibben Apartments is a five-minute walk or short shuttle ride from central campus. Due to University policy this event is for graduate students, staff, faculty, and their guests.
Sponsored by the Queer Graduate Caucus.

Saturday, September 30, 8:30–11 a.m. New Jersey Ride Against AIDS Princeton Rest Stop

Frist North Plaza
This amazing group of cyclists ride 250 miles to raise funds for AIDS research. Please come out to show your support and cheer them on.
Sponsored by the Frist Campus Center and LGBT Center.

OCTOBER

Wednesday, October 4, 4:30 p.m. Adrienne Rich—Poetry Reading and Discussion

McCormick 101
The Meredith Miller Memorial Lecture for 2006–07 will be a poetry reading and discussion by award-winning poet and essayist, Adrienne Rich. For more information, call Barbara Gershen at 8-5430 or e-mail gershen@princeton.edu.
Sponsored by the Program in the Study of Women and Gender and Princeton Public Lecture Committee.

October 9 through October 14 LGBT Awareness Week

Tuesday, October 10, 4:30–6 p.m. The FFR LGBTQ Fall Lecture—Is There a Gay Gene?

Frist 302
Well known for his research on gay genetics, Brian Mustanski, assistant professor of psychiatry at the University of Illinois–Chicago, will speak on current findings, as well as historical perspectives and future directions. A short discussion of the moral implications of such research will take place following the lecture.
Sponsored by the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, Department of Molecular Biology, Fund For Reunion, LGBT Center, Pride Alliance, and Queer Graduate Caucus.

Wednesday, October 11, Noon National Coming OUT Day Rally

Frist Campus Center Plaza
Show your PRIDE! Join us for our annual coming out day rally.
Sponsored by the Pride Alliance.

Thursday, October 12, 4–6 p.m. The LGBT Center Grand Opening and Celebration

The LGBT Center
This has been a long time coming! Celebrate our fabulous new LGBT Center at this very special event and reception. President Tilghman, Vice President Burstein, and many others will dedicate the space.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and LGBT Task Force.

Friday, October 13, Noon Coming OUT Trans @ Princeton

Forbes College Special Dining Room
What is it like to be OUT as a transgender person? What is it like to be trans at Princeton? Two recent graduates and current students speak about their experiences on campus. Lunch will be provided.
Sponsored by Forbes College, LGBT Center, and Women's Center.

Saturday, October 14, 10 p.m. The 12th Annual Terrace Drag Ball

Terrace Club
Come dressed to express your gender and cross-gender barriers at one of the most popular events of the year. The winning drag performers will be entered into the second All Ivy Drag Competition to take place in the spring. Drag is encouraged even for those not fabulous enough to enter the contest. Free for Terrans, $3 for Princeton students.
Sponsored by the Queer Radicals and Terrace Club.

Tuesday, October 17, 8 p.m. Queer Film Series—TransAmerica

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Movie, short discussion, and refreshments.
Sponsored by the Queer Graduate Caucus and Pride Alliance.

Wednesday, October 18, 5–6:30 p.m. One Nation Under God: The Marriage of Church and State with R. Marie Griffith and Chris Hedges

Frist 234
Join us for a talk about how the religious right is using gay marriage as a wedge issue in the upcoming (and former) election, legislation, and other political venues. R. Marie Griffith is an associate professor of religion whose research examines gender within Evangelical Christianity in America. Chris Hedges is a highly acclaimed journalist who is writing a book about the Christian Right and its role in American today. This program is part of the LGBT Seminar Series and the Pace Center's Series: The Just Society.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center, Mathey College, Office of Religious Life, and Pace Center.

Monday, October 23, 6 p.m. LGBT Pride Dinner

Pyne Tower Suite
Join us for Chinese food, dessert, and good conversation! For more information, contact Tara at tkitley@princeton.edu or 8-6686.
Sponsored by the Office of the Graduate School.

Thursday, October 26 National Intersex Awareness Day

Visit: www.intersex-awareness-day.org for more information.

NOVEMBER

Monday, November 13, 5 p.m. Freud's Spanish Boyfriend with Rubén Gallo

Frist 234
As a teenager, Sigmund Freud learned Spanish to read Cervantes in the original. Spanish also became his secret language to correspond with Eduard Silberstein, a very close and very special friend who played Sancho to Freud's Don Quixote. Rubén Gallo will discuss how Spanish colored Freud's relationship with Silberstein—a bilingual, homoerotic romance. This is part of his next book, Freud in Mexico.
Sponsored by the Fields Center, LGBT Center, and Program in Latin American Studies.

Monday, November 20, 7:30 p.m. National Transgender Day of Remembrance Service

University Chapel
Please join us as we gather for a moving ceremony to remember and honor all those who have been killed as a result of anti-transgender bigotry, hatred, and violence.
Sponsored by Garden State Equality, Gender Rights Advocacy Association of New Jersey, LGBT Center, Office of Religious Life, Firehazards, and Women's Center.

Tuesday, November 21, 3–4 p.m. Drop-in-Hours for the LGBT Community

McCosh Health Center, Room 118
Drop in the third Tuesday every other month to discuss sexual health (HIV, sexuality, STIs, pelvic exams) in a confidential LGBT-friendly space. Ask for Olga Hernandez.
Sponsored by University Health Services.

Tuesday, Nov 21, 8 p.m. Queer Film Series—Floored by Love

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Movie, short discussion, and refreshments.
Sponsored by the Queer Graduate Caucus and Pride Alliance.

Wednesday, November 29, Noon Coming OUT Professionally

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Should you come out during the job search or once you start your job? How do you evaluate a company to know if they are LGBT friendly? If you are involved with LGBT activities, do you list them on your resume? Join Becky Ross, associate director of Career Services, to discuss issues related to coming out professionally. Lunch provided.
Sponsored by Career Services and the LGBT Center.

DECEMBER

Friday, December 1, 12:30–1 p.m. World AIDS Day Service

University Chapel
The Princeton University community comes together on World AIDS Day to remember and reflect those affected by the pandemic of AIDS. All are encouraged to attend.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center, Office of Religious Life, and Student Global AIDS Campaign.

Friday, December 8, Noon Hey Mom, I'm Gay! Coming OUT To Friends and Family

LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Are you thinking about coming out to friends and family at home? Join us for a discussion about coming out, things to think about, and ways they might respond. If you are already out, share your experiences, challenges, and celebrations.
Sponsored by the LGBT Center and LGBT Peer Educators.

MONTHLY EVENTS

First Fridays at Frist Coffeehouse

First Friday of the Month
3–4:30 p.m. • LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Join us for our monthly coffeehouse to meet people, hang out, and relax. All are invited, and coffee and desserts are free.
Sponsored by the Frist Campus Center.

Queering the Color Line Family Dinner

Second Monday of the Month
6 p.m. • Frist 243
This is a welcoming and supportive space for LGBT people of color to meet other students, staff, and faculty. Stop in, hang out, and have dinner, which is provided.
Sponsored by the Fields Center, LGBT Center, and Women's Center.

Queer Graduate Coffee Social

Second Wednesday of the Month
8–9 p.m. • LGBT Center Rainbow Lounge
Join our monthly social gathering for good coffee, relaxing conversation, and a chance to meet others every second Wednesday of the month. All are welcome.
Sponsored by the Graduate School and the Queer Graduate Caucus.

Chattin' with the Chaplain

Fourth Tuesday of the Month
3:30–5 p.m. • Dean Raushenbush's office, third floor Murray-Dodge
An informal gathering for the LGBT and ally communities; we will have coffee, refreshments, and fabulous conversation.
Sponsored by the Office of Religious Life