WHAT YOU'LL FIND...

- A safe and supportive place to discuss topics related to sexual orientation and gender identity
- Resource Room and Library with a multitude of books, periodicals, films, and brochures
- Workstations for the many LGBTQA organizations and groups supported by the Center
- The Rainbow Lounge for programs, meetings, hanging out, and studying (open every day until midnight)
- A seating area in front of the Center available for informal meetings and studying and is accessible after hours
- Opportunities for dialogue and academic pursuits around LGBTQA-related topics

MISSION:

Princeton University’s Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Center is by, for and about lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, queer, asexual and ally members of the Princeton University community. The LGBT Center works to create a safe and supportive academic environment through educational opportunities and advocating for the needs and concerns of LGBTQA students.

We strive to improve the Princeton University campus climate by coordinating efforts across campus, providing outreach to students, staff and faculty and working to ensure the inclusion and integration of LGBTQA issues campus wide. Our goal is to enhance the Princeton University campus community and to ensure the advancement of our students’ academic pursuits by creating an open and affirming environment void of homophobia, transphobia, heterosexism and gender bias.

Through providing educational, social and supportive programming, along with conducting training sessions and consultation, the LGBT Center serves the entire campus community.
