

The Future of the Russian State

March 14-17, 2002
Triesenberg, Liechtenstein

This Liechtenstein Colloquium discussed issues relevant to the emerging Russian state as they related to communities, borders, institutions, safety, security, and economic wellbeing. The conference formed part of an ongoing international and interdisciplinary project spearheaded by LISD on “Self-Governance in the Regions of the Former Soviet Union: Political Institutions, Property, and State Power.”