

SELF-GOVERNANCE AND SECURITY IN SOUTH ASIA
11-12 May 2001
Princeton, New Jersey

Friday, May 11, 2001

6:00pm Reception (Prospect House)

7:00 pm Dinner (Prospect House)
Overview of Self-Governance and Security in South Asia
Robert Goheen

Saturday, May 12, 2001
(127 Corwin Hall)

8:45am Breakfast

9:00am Session I: Socio-Economic Challenges
Discussants
Atul Kohli
Akbar Ahmed
Smitu Kothari

- Social Inequalities
- Economic Disparities
- Other Regional Challenges (Fundamentalism, Human Rights, and Refugees)

10:15am Session II: The Military/Strategic Dimension
Discussants
Stephen Cohen
Zia Mian

- Nuclear Powers
- Border Disputes

11:30am Coffee Break

11:45am Session III: Regional-Global Strategic Power Relationships (Regional and Outside Powers)
Discussants
Richard A. Falk
Wolfgang Danspeckgruber

- Relationship between South Asian Countries and Global Strategic Powers like the U.S. and the European Union
- Groups/Interests Outside the Internationally Recognized (State) Framework

12:45pm Lunch

1:00-3:00pm Concluding Session: Self-Governance and Security in South Asia – Where to Go from Here (An Agenda for Research)