

MATERIALS SCIENCE & ENGINEERING CLASS OF 2014

JUNE 2014 ISSUE

On June 2, 2014, seventeen students graduated from the Materials Science & Engineering (MSE) Certificate Program. The 2014 MSE class included students from Chemistry, Chemical and Biological Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering and Physics. The future plans of the students range from graduate school at Virginia Tech, Harvard and Columbia to working at consulting firms and non-profit sector companies. << photos >>

Three students were recognized for their overall academic performance and dedication to leadership.

Nigel Brauser, from the Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering department, and Tamara Pico, from the Chemistry department, were awarded the "Outstanding Leadership in Materials Award" ... more

Beatrice Soh, of Chemical and Biological Engineering, was awarded the "Outstanding Materials Student Award" ... more

Newport Award Winners:

Arvind Ravikumar and John Chang, both graduate students in the Department of Electrical Engineering, are the co-winners of the 2014 Newport Graduate Award in Photonics ... more

Callie Woods, a senior from the Electrical Engineering department, is the recipient of the 2014 Newport Undergraduate Award in Photonics ... more

SEMINAR SERIES

The Fall 2014 PRISM/PCCM SEMINAR SERIES will begin in September. The schedule will be posted as soon as it becomes available.

AWARDS

PRISM faculty member Gmachl receives President's Award for Distinguished Teaching ... more

PRISM faculty members Cava and Wagner named recipients of the Graduate Mentoring Awards ... more

PRISM faculty member Chou receives the IEEE Pioneer Award in Nanotechnology... more

PRISM faculty members receives two new research technologies Schmidt fund awards... more

*Have a fun and safe
summer!*

