

GRADUATE CONFERENCE
in political theory

Against Democracy

keynote address by

Alan Ryan
Oxford University

April 11, 2008
9:00am – 5:00pm

April 12, 2008
9:00am – 3:00pm

Corwin Hall 127
Department of Politics
Princeton University

For more information politicaltheory.princeton.edu

Freedom and Just Punishment in the Thought of John Locke
Tersa Bejan, Yale University

Forgiveness and the State:
Re-Imagining the Role of Forgiveness in Politics
Mark Daku, McGill University

Virtue and Law in Rousseau's Emile
Rafeeq Hasan, University of Chicago

Constitutional Obligations
Peter Northup, New York University

'The World Needs Ditch-Diggers Too':
On a Right Not to Work and Right to Good Work
Lucas Stanczyk, Harvard University

Rationalism and Relativism:
An Essay on John Rawls and Michael Oakeshott
Aaron Wendland, York University

Taking the Higher-Order Road: International Institutions and Global Justice
David Wiens, University of Michigan

Isaiah Berlin's Defense of Liberal Democracy: Against Reductionism, from a Logical to a Historical Possibility
Carla Yumatle, University of California Berkeley