

Imitation and Appropriation

Coinage in the Age of the Crusades

Friday, April 24, 2009

10:30 a.m. Morning Session

Welcome: Dimitri Gondicas (Princeton University)

Introduction: Pagona Papadopoulou (Princeton University)

Julian Baker (Ashmolean Museum) : "Prototype and Copy in the Coinages of Latin Greece, 13th-15th centuries"

Pagona Papadopoulou (Princeton University) : "When Paradise Was Lost: Aspiration and Necessity after the Fourth Crusade"

Respondent: Alan Stahl (Princeton University)

12:30 p.m. Lunch

2:00 p.m. Afternoon Session

Scott Redford (Koç University) : "Give and Take in Byzantine-Seljuk Relations, 12th-13th centuries"

Robert Kool (Israel Antiquities Authority) : "Migration, Segregation or Assimilation: Coinages and Imitations in Outremer, 1099-1291"

James Todesca (Armstrong Atlantic State University) : "Means of Exchange: Islamic Coinage in Christian Spain, c.1035-1252"

Respondent: Oleg Grabar (Institute for Advanced Study)

103 Scheide-Caldwell House

4:30 p.m. Exhibition Opening Reception

Eighteenth-Century Window - Main Gallery, Firestone Library

The exhibition will be on view April 22 - May 12, 2009

Website: <http://www.princeton.edu/~hellenic/ImitationAppropriation.html>

Program Committee: Dimitri Gondicas, Pagona Papadopoulou, Alan Stahl