

THE FUTURE OF THE SOUTH BALKANS
12 December 1998
Princeton, New Jersey

Saturday, December 12th, 1998
(Notestein Hall)

- 9:00am Kosovo: The Current Situation and the Potential Implementation of a Legal-Administrative Self-Governance Solution
- The situation in Kosovo;
 - The state of the US-EU Plan for a possible solution and a new status of Kosovo
 - Interpretations, problems, and prospects;
 - A case for self-governance?
- 10:30am Coffee Break
- 10:45am Kosovo as Part of the South-Balkan Sub-Region
- The situation in the other regions of the FRY;
 - The immediate neighborhood, i.e. Albania and Macedonia;
 - Potential ramifications for Kosovo.
- 12:15pm Lunch
- 1:30pm The International Interplay, Influence, and Interests
- The influence of the outside world, i.e. the diaspora;
 - The role of outside powers;
 - The power and influence of local and international organized crime.
- 3:30pm Meeting ends