

Problem 18 Answers, Chemistry 301X, 2006

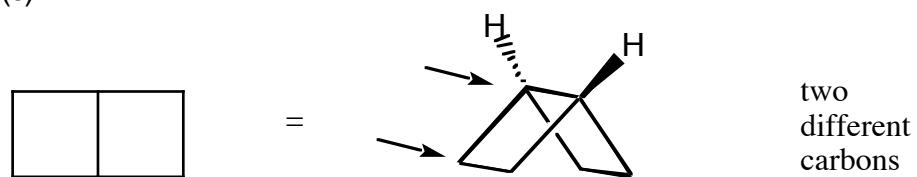

(a)

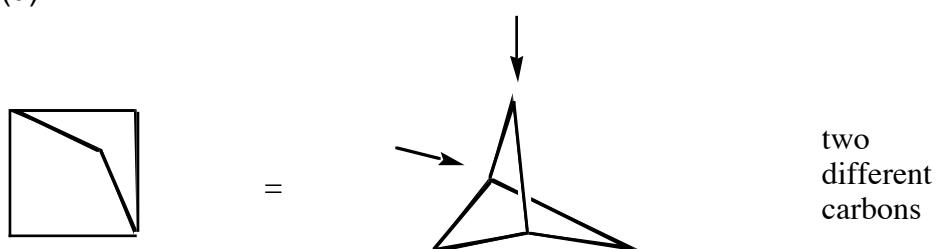

(b)

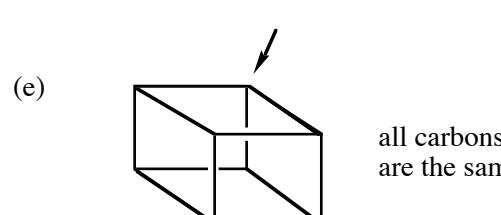

(c)

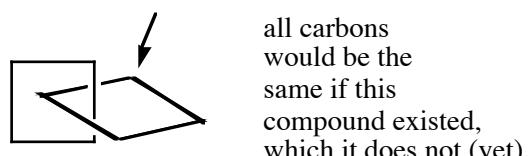

(d)

(e)

(f)

actually, in part (f) there is only one carbon if there is free rotation of the rings. How many carbons would there be if the links are “stuck”?

