

Appendix E

List of Contractor Documents

For this report, OTA commissioned six reports on various topics related to biological rhythms and shift work. The reports are available from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS) in Springfield, VA. For additional information, call NTIS at (703) 487-4600.

- . “Biological Rhythms and Human Performance,” S.S. Campbell, 1989 (NTIS No. PB 91215913).
- “Shift Work and the Worker,” T.H. Monk, 1989 (NTIS No. PB 91215947).
- . “Shift Work and Nursing,” C.S. Weisman, 1989 (NTIS No. PB 91215954).
- “Military Applications of Circadian Rhythm Principles,” K.S. Hull, Decision Science Consortium, Inc., 1990 (NTIS No. PB 91215905).
- “Shift Work and Society: Demographics and Social Implications,” H.B. Presser, 1990 (NTIS No. PB 91215939).
- . “Legal and Regulatory Issues Related to Work Schedules and Hours of Work,” B.W. Mintz, 1991 (NTIS No. PB 91215921).