

Contents

1 Overview and Findings, 1

- Cleanup Worker Health and Safety Risks, 3
- Consequences of Failure To Protect Weapons Complex Cleanup Workers, 5
- Approach Used in This Study, 5
- Superfund and RCRA Experience: Worker Protection Lessons, 6
- Cleanup Worker Protection in the DOE Nuclear Weapons Complex Cleanup Program, 11
- Summary of Findings, 13
- Chapter 1 Endnotes, 14

2 Lessons From Superfund and RCRA, 19

- Worker Protection Issues Within the Regulatory Process, 19
- Problems With Contracting Practices, 24
- Effectiveness of Cleanup Worker Health and Safety Regulations, 27
- Chapter 2 Endnotes, 43

3 Cleanup Worker Protection at the DOE Nuclear Weapons Complex, 49

- Management Commitment to Occupational Safety and Health Priorities, 50
- Line Management Responsibility for Occupational Safety and Health, 52
- Oversight of Occupational Safety and Health Practices, 56
- Worker Protection Competes With Other Cleanup Priorities, 59
- DOE Site Characterization Data, 60
- Impacts of DOE Contracting Practices, 62
- Application of HAZWOPER to DOE Cleanup, 64
- Chapter 3 Endnotes, 73

Conclusion—Opportunities and Dangers, 79

