OTA online

THE CONGRESSIONAL OFFICE OF TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT (OTA) has taken advantage of recent developments in information technologies to make its work widely available electronically. General information about the agency, electronic versions of OTA publications, and news about work in progress all are accessible online. You can retrieve this information in a variety of ways.

HOW TO ACCESS

OTA Online includes many common Internet features such as a World Wide Web (WWW) home page, an FTP collection of OTA report files and other information, and an electronic bulletin board (BBS) accessible via WWW or Telnet that permits file text searches. OTA Online is accessible through the following standard Internet tools:

- ➢ WWW: http://www.ota.gov
- ➢ FTP: otabbs.ota.gov, login as anonymous, password is your e-mail address; publications are in the /pub directory
- ➢ Telnet: otabbs.ota.gov, login as public, password is public

Additional features of the BBS are available through client software with a graphical user interface for Microsoft Windows. This software is available free through the WWWV home page or by contacting the OTA Telecommunications and Information Systems Office. (202) 228-6000, or e-mail sysop@ota.gov. Soon the BBS will be available via telephone dial-in access. Questions or comments on Internet services should be directed by e-mail to netsupport@ota.gov

OTA also maintains a free electronic mailing list known as OTANEWS which allows anyone with access to electronic mail on the Internet to receive notices of all OTA reports upon their release. To subscribe to OTANEWS, address an electronic mail message to listserv@ota.gov. Leave the subject line blank. In the text of the message, type: subscribe otanews [your name]. For example, Jane Smith would type:

SUBSCRIBE OTANEWS JANE SMITH

After you have sent the message, you will receive confirmation that your subscription has been entered. If you encounter difficulties, send an e-mail message to postmaster@ota.gov
