Index

| ADP (Automatic Data Processing, Inc.), 182 | Basel Committee, 83-84, 351-352 |
|---|--|
| Adult Education Act, 1984, 358 | Bidding, engineering and construction, 123 |
| Adult education and training, 356-359 | "Big Bang," U. K., 114, 313, see also Deregulation |
| technologies, 359-361 | Biotechnology, 120 |
| vocational and paraprofessional, 359 | engineering and construction, opportunities, 145, |
| Affiliates, overseas, revenues, 191, see also Foreign | 146 |
| affiliates | overseas licensing, 210, 212 |
| | Brazil |
| Alvey program, U. K., 306, 307-309 | |
| American universities: | perspective on liberalization, 70 |
| engineers, scientists, 198, 199 | telecommunications, regulation, 174-175 |
| Antitrust enforcement, U. S., see also AT&T breakup | Bretton Woods Agreement, 77 |
| and licensing agreements, 203 | Bridging, international competition, 143 |
| illegal licensing practices, 215-216 | British Telecom, 174 |
| Arms-length licensing, 193-194 | Bundespost, 172 |
| U.S. to Japan, 201-203 | Bureau of Economic Analysis |
| Army Corps of Engineers | improved trade data, 337 |
| construction technology R&D, 148-151 | international banking data, 349, 350 |
| Artificial intelligence, 261, see also Expert systems | licensing, data, 195-197 |
| expert systems in construction, 139 | procedures, 25 |
| Assets, world's largest banks, 86 | royalties data, 191 |
| AT&T breakup, 18, 29, 30, 158, 216, 244, 313, 352, | services, U.S. imports and exports, 58 |
| 368 | trade data, inadequacy, 341 |
| impacts of antitrust policy, 216 | Bureau of Labor Statistics, 228 |
| international repercussions, 171 | Durena of Ducor Standards, 220 |
| Automation, and services employment, 229 | |
| Automation, and services employment, 22) | Consider II C. honks in 100 101 |
| Dalram Dlam Jaama to davialamina accentuica 111 | Canada, U.S. banks in, 100-101 |
| Baker Plan, loans to developing countries, 111 | Capital |
| Banker's acceptances, 98 | commercial v. investment banking, 108 |
| Banking and financial services | external markets, 82 |
| congressional options, 27, 348-351 | Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act, 1984, 356, |
| expert systems, 91 | 357 |
| fee-earning services, 87, 96-99 | Carter Administration, antitrust standards, 215-216 |
| foreign regulatory policies, 312, 314 | Cash management services, banks, 92-93 |
| innovations, 94-95 | computers, 113 |
| international competition, 79-116 | restrictions, 93 |
| international, data for analysis, 111-112 | Center for Building Technology, National Bureau of |
| major banks, international assets, 11 | Standards, 29 |
| new and growing product markets, 94-99 | Federal support, 149 |
| policy, U. S., and international competitiveness, | Center for Fire Research, Federal support, 149 |
| 348-352, 349 | Central office (CO) switching equipment, 157 |
| retail, overseas, 100-101 | New York Telephone, 244 |
| trade and competition, summary, 10-13 | "Channelization" or product organization, 281, |
| U.S. banks, foreign branches, 87 | 282-283 |
| U. S., international competitiveness, 12, 84 | CHAPS, 91 |
| U.S. international competitiveness, priorities, | CHIPS (Clearing House Interbank Payments System), |
| 349-351 | 91, 110 |
| Banking regulations | Claims adjustors, insurance, computer use, 264-265 |
| international coordination, 13, 83, 110-113, 351-352 | Coalition of Service Industries, 335 |
| Banking regulations, U. S., 12, 108-111 | Commercial banking, see also Banking and financial |
| | services |
| commercial v. investment banking, 108-109 interstate, 109 | competitive strategy, 101 |
| , | 1 |
| Banking, U. S., infrastructure, 109-110 | onshore retail banking, 100-101 |
| Banks, income | profitable markets, 100-103 |
| fee v. interest, 93 | Commercial lending, 101 |
| profitability, 94 | Japan, 101 |

| Commercial technologies, 361-365 | trade data analysis, 339, 340-341 |
|---|--|
| R&D diffusion, 216 | USTR, 340-341, 343 |
| support, Administration, 363, 364-365 | Construction |
| Communications systems, see also Telecommunica- | international market, 130-132, 131 |
| tions applications and use, 263-272 | labor costs, 136 |
| effects on international banking, 81 | overview of the industry, 124-127 |
| strategic applications, 269 | productivity, 141-143 |
| Competition | U.S. competitiveness, 132 |
| effects on U.S. employment, 231-232 | U.S. firms as technology brokers, 143-144 |
| Computer-aided design/manufacturing, 188, 274 | U. S., new, 126 |
| Computer-aided design and drafting (CADD) | Construction technologies, 120 |
| engineering and construction, applications, 120, | R&D support, 148-151 |
| 139 | Contingent workers, 227, 243-249, 255-256 |
| partially automated fine grading, 141 | manufacturing, 247 |
| piping in construction, 125 | part-time, 246, 248-249 |
| Computer hardware | self-employment, 246, 248 |
| international standards, 271 | Contractors |
| Computer industries | international, 126, 129 |
| foreign government support, 309-310 | U. S., largest, 131 |
| Computer-integrated production, new model, 261, see | costs |
| also New-model firms | computer applications, strategy, 267-269 |
| implications, 285-286 | determining international competitiveness, 47-49 |
| macro level, 268, 269, 269-272 | shifts, in new-model organizations, 284 |
| macro level, U.S. firms, 271 | Counterfeiting of products, 318-321 |
| micro level, 268, 269, 272 | Credit card services, international, 100 |
| Computer languages | Credit-generating innovations, 50-51 |
| international standards, 316 | Credit-risk-transferring instruments, 50 |
| Computers | Cross-1 licensing agreements, 209, 211 |
| applications in engineering and construction, | Currency, home, advantages of dealing in, 97 |
| 139-141 | Custom programming, Japan, 163-164 |
| management decisions on, 260-261 | |
| technology/science base for the services, 38-39 | Database and information services, 183-186, 183, 184 |
| technology, uses, 39-41 | 186 |
| Computer software, see Software | Data processing, 181-186 |
| Computer systems | Citibank, 282-283 |
| applications and use, 39, 139-141, 263-272 | corporate, early years, 266 |
| business applications, 265-266 | firms, examples, 182 |
| corporate networks, 270, 270 | industry revenues, 159, 181, 183 |
| in banking, 91-93 | international opportunities, 181-183 |
| insurance industry, 263, 264-265 | |
| links between firms, 268-269 | services, industry, 181-183 |
| | services, industry, 181-183 |
| | strategic applications of systems, 269 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 ISDN, 369 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment banking, 109 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 ISDN, 369 policy options, 327-376 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment banking, 109 effects on international banking, 81 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 ISDN, 369 policy options, 327-376 R&D and technology development, 362-369 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment banking, 109 effects on international banking, 81 financial markets, 114 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 ISDN, 369 policy options, 327-376 R&D and technology development, 362-369 recent trade bills, 334, 373 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment banking, 109 effects on international banking, 81 financial markets, 114 impacts, 373 |
| occupations, characterization, 275, 277, 278, 278 systems design and people's skills, 272-278 technological advances, 267 Computer technology, effects on international banking, 81 Comsat, 170 Concrete technologies, 143 Congress domestic banking legislation, 111 education, reevaluation, 356 education and training, 356-361 international banking, 348-352 involvement in trade negotiations, 335-337 ISDN, 369 policy options, 327-376 R&D and technology development, 362-369 | strategic applications of systems, 269 technological advances, 267 Dematuration of industries, 188 Department of Defense R&D funding, 305 R&D in construction, 138 Deposit insurance, 110-111 Deregulation, 22 and U.S. policymaking, 340 forcing new technologies, 72 Deregulation, financial industries, 11 and bank profitability, 94 and innovation in banking, 50, 51, 95-96 barriers between commercial and investment banking, 109 effects on international banking, 81 financial markets, 114 |

| Deregulation, telecommunications, 158, 170, 171-175, | temporary, 247-248, 247 |
|---|--|
| 188 | trends, 225-256, 229 |
| New York Telephone reorganization, 244-245 | women, 231, 253 |
| Design and construction, examples of American | Engineering and construction, 7, 13-16 |
| projects, 122 Decign hid haild contracts, 122, 122, 142 | competitive strategies 126 148 |
| Design-bid-build contracts, 122-123, 143 | competitive strategies, 136-148 |
| technical qualifications, 138 | contract linkages, 127-128 |
| Design-construct contracts, 122-123 | foreign firms, computer use, 139 |
| Design firms | foreign firms in the U. S., 120, 135-136, 136 |
| international business, 124, 126, 133, 134 | industry structure, 121-136 |
| U. S., computer use in international competition, 139-141 | international competition, 119-153 |
| U. S., overseas work, 132-133, 132, 134 | international market, 124, 128-136 new technologies, examples, 140-141 |
| Design, in engineering and construction, 121 | specialization, 121 |
| Design of work | Engineering and construction, U.S. firms |
| rigid v. adaptive, 275, 277, 278, 278 | competitiveness, 13-16, 119-153 |
| Development strategies, 302 | contracting practices, 147-148 |
| policy tools, 311-321 | international consortia, 120 |
| Doctoral degrees, science and engineering, 198, 199 | managerial expertise, 120 |
| Dollar | new products, 146 |
| role in international banking, 97 | professional services, 119 |
| Total in international canning, | projects, examples, 122 |
| Earnings, 233, 235, 236 | strategies, 144, 145-147, 150-153 |
| by industry, 238 | tax policies, U. S., impacts, 374-375 |
| pay scales in new-model organizations, 281 | technology, competitiveness, 14, 150 |
| service jobs, 253 | Engineering Research Centers, National Science |
| unreported, see Underground economy | Foundation, 29, 365 |
| Economic adjustment, service industries, 76-78 | Equity, stock |
| government policies, 77 | onshore markets, 87, 88 |
| EDS (Electronic Data Systems) | ESPRIT (European Strategic Program for Research in |
| General Motors corporate computer network, 178 | Information Technology), 306, 307, 309-310 |
| Education, see also Adult education and training | Eureka, 306, 310 |
| and career mobility, 253-254 | Eurobonds, 10, 96 |
| and earnings, 234 | by country, 97 |
| career prospects for service workers, 236 | Euroequity, 87 |
| credentials for new service industries, 287 | Euromarket, 81, 87, 95, 99 |
| entry-level employees, 240-243 | Euronotes, 96 |
| foreign engineering students in U. S., 198, 199 | Europe, technology development, 200-203, 205-206 |
| future demands, 261 | European Community |
| instructional technologies, 359-361 | technology development, 305-306 |
| Japan, engineering graduates, 204-205 | U.S. service exports, 60 |
| R&D, funding, 360-361 | European Patent Convention, 206 |
| reevaluation, 355-359 | Euroyen market, 104 |
| training for high-skill jobs, 275 | Expert systems, 161, 267 |
| Education and Training for American Competitive- | application to design and construction, 139 |
| ness Act, 1987, 358 Electronic databases, 159-160 | Export financing, 346-347 |
| Electronic funds transfer, 81 | Export-led growth, national development, 302 |
| automated clearinghouses, U. S., 92 | Export-led growth, harronar development, 302 Export-Import Bank of the U. S., 137, 346-347 |
| Electronic networks, banking, 91-93 | Exports, U.S. |
| Employment, U. S., 223-256 | BEA figures, 58-59, 59 |
| career prospects for new service workers, 240 | composition, figures, 61 |
| characteristics by occupation, 239 | confusion with foreign revenues, 63 |
| dependence on trade in services, 5 | controls, 215 |
| growth by industry and sex, 231 | promotion, 345 |
| immigrants, mobility, 251, 252 | External patenting, 205-206, 206 |
| mobility, 238-243 | |
| part-time workers, 248-249 | Fabricated steel structures, international competition, |
| self-employment, 246, 248 | 143 |
| shifting patterns, 255 | Feasibility studies, 121 |

| Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 83 | technology licensing, 218-219 |
|---|---|
| deposit insurance, 110-111 | trade and investment barriers, 74-75, 296-298 |
| dual role in U.S. banking, 109-111 | Foreign nationals, in U.S. engineering work force, |
| services to U.S. banks, 109-110 | 198-200 |
| Federal Highway Administration, construction technology research, 149 | Foreign-owned banks in the U. S., 90, 114 lending, 88 |
| Federal Republic of Germany, see West Germany | reasons for investment in U. S., 90 |
| Federal Reserve Board, 83, 109, 113 | Foreign revenue services, OTA estimates, 63, 67 |
| decisions, investment banking, 99-100 | Foreign students, engineering degrees in U. S., 198, |
| monetary policy, 108 | 199 |
| Federal Technology Transfer Act, 1986, 29, 360, 362, | Foreign technology |
| 365 | licensing by U.S. firms, 18-20, 214 |
| FedWire, 92, 110 | |
| | payments by U.S. firms, 197 |
| Fiber-optics, 175, 180 | purchase by U.S. firms, 192 |
| competition for satellite circuits, 170 | Fourth-generation software, 161, 285 |
| Fifth-generation computer project, Japan, 163, | France |
| 165-166, 217 | technology development policies, 306, 309-310 |
| Financial services firms, see Banks | telecommunications, regulations, 172-173 |
| Financial services, U.S. tax policies, impacts, 374 | Franchising, foreign, in U. S., 54 |
| Financial system, safety and stability, 110-111 | |
| Financing | |
| engineering and construction, 136-137 | GEISCO (General Electric Information Services Co.), |
| FIRE (finance, insurance, and real estate) industries | 182 |
| education of workers, 234 | General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 4, |
| new jobs, 233, 234 | 25, 46 |
| Flexibility, organizational | Agreement on Government Procurement, 311-312 |
| competitiveness, 260 | escape clause, 77 |
| computer systems design, 273 | problems of non-tariff barriers, 74 |
| contingent workers, hiring, 243-246 | services discussions, opposition, 298-300 |
| Floating rate notes, 96, 108 | strengthening by Uruguay Round, 339 |
| Floats, 92 | U.S. concessions, 332 |
| Food and Drug Administration, 212 | U.S. services initiative, 298-300 |
| Foreign affiliates | General Motors, 33 |
| in service industries, 35 | corporate computer network, 178 |
| revenues, 191 | Glass-Steagall Act, 99, 100, 108, 109 |
| sales, 62-65 | Goods, U.S. |
| to serve foreign markets, 46 | exports, for overseas construction projects, 127-128, |
| Foreign bonds, onshore markets, 87 | 128 |
| Foreign direct investment, 194, 201 | Grade-Way Construction Co., 140-141 |
| coverage in GATT, 299 | Greene, Harold, U.S. District Court Judge, 315, 353 |
| government objectives and policies, 299 | Greene, Harora, C.S. District Court range, 515, 555 |
| Japanese expansion in international banking, 106 | Health services, job creation, 233 |
| negotiations in GATT, 338-339 | High technology, Uruguay Round, 295-296 |
| risks and technical licensing, 208-209, 211 | |
| Foreign government policies, 22, 293-325 | Human capital, 287, 332-333 |
| and international construction market, 132 | U.S. competitiveness in services, 20-22, 260, |
| | 354-361 |
| and U.S. licensing strategies, 208 | Human resources |
| developing world, strategies, 302 | policies, 23, 24, 334-361 |
| economic policymaking structures, 31 | TH. 1.1. 1 251.252 |
| effects on U.S. trade policy, 334 | Illegal immigration, 251-252 |
| foreign direct investment, 218-219 | I-Match, 345 |
| intervention in engineering and construction con- | Immigrants in the U.S. labor force |
| tracting, 135, 137, 147-148 | by occupation and industry, 250-251 |
| Japanese Government, banking concessions, 102 | illegal aliens, 250, 251-252 |
| procurement, European telecommunications equip- | professionals, 250 |
| ment market, 171, 175 | Immigration and Nationality Act, 250 |
| regulatory policies, 312-315 | Import substitution, national development, 302 |
| technical standards in services industries, 316-318 | Imports, U.S. |
| technological innovations, 303-306 | BEA figures, 60-61, 61 |
| technology, 305 | Independent contracting, 248 |

| India, software industry, 168 Industry Sector Advisory Committees, 23, 343 InfoBase Corp., 185-186 Information flows, computer application, 269-270, | Japan banking deregulation, 96 challenge to U.S. banks, 82-83 competition in the financial services industry, 84-85 |
|--|---|
| 270 Information services, 16-18, 159-160, see also Database and information services; Information | computer utilization, 260 external patent applications, 205-206, 206 future competition in services, 7-9 |
| technology | information technology, government support, |
| new markets, 185-186 | 309-311 |
| products, 183 | international technical licensing, 204 |
| U.S. markets, 183 | licensing from U. S., 202-203 |
| U.S. tax policies, impacts, 375 | services deficit, 70 |
| Information technology, services industries, 157-188 Innovation, financial services industry, 50-51, 114 | software industry and market, 163-166 software technology, 164-165 |
| Institute of New Generation Computer Technology | technology development, 200-208 |
| (ICOT), Japan, 165 | technology imports, 201 |
| Insurance industry | technology imports into U. S., 220 |
| automation, 231 | technology, policymaking, 303-305 |
| computer systems, 263, 264-265 | telecommunications equipment, 173 |
| Integrated production systems, 262, 285-287 | telecommunications, regulation, 173-174, 314 |
| new model, 278-282 | trade barriers, software, 166 |
| Integrated Services Digital Networks (ISDN), 17-18, | Japanese banks |
| 29, 158, 177, 187, 267 | banker's acceptances, 98 |
| congressional options, 363, 367-369 | expansion abroad, 106 |
| international standards, 316-317 Integration and expansion, 53-55 | international competitiveness, 104, 106 |
| common management structure, 54 | scenarios for future competition, 102-108 Japanese corporations |
| global, U.S. firms as leaders, 54 | computer applications, 271-272 |
| Intellectual property protection, 196, 215 | computer integration, micro level, 272 |
| international, 318, 321, 324 | desire for deregulation, 104 |
| software, 318-321 | expansion abroad, 106 |
| trade issue, 319-320 | financing, 102 |
| Intelsat, 170 | multinationals, 54-55 |
| Inter-American Development Bank, financing of de- | work organization, 284 |
| sign contracts, 122 | Japanese Government, see also Ministry of Interna- |
| International Banking Act, 1978, 90, 112, 312-313 | tional Trade and Industry; Ministry of Finance |
| International competitiveness, U.S. | financial liberalization questions, 107 |
| determinants, 45, 47-52 service industries, major influences, 49 | role in competitiveness of Japanese banks, 103-108 telecommunications regulation, 173-174 |
| International consortia, U.S. engineering and con- | Japanese language, software difficulties, 164-165 |
| struction firms in, 147-148 | Japanese Technical Literature Act, 1986, 29, 362, |
| International financial services, 10-13, 81-116 | 365-366 |
| assets of largest world banks, 86 | Job creation, 253 |
| growth and competition, 85-94, 101-102 | by industry, 232, 233-237 |
| growth compared to world trade, 85 | by occupation, 237-238 |
| International Organizations for Standardization (ISO), | competition and structural change, 231-232 |
| 315 | dynamics, 232-233 |
| International Telecommunication Union (ITU), 18, | Job Training Partnership Act, 1982, 356 |
| 25, 170, 316 International Trade and Investment Act. 335, 370 | Joint development, engineering/construction and |
| International Trade and Investment Act, 335, 370 Interstate banking, 109 | manufacturing, 147-148 Joint ventures, U.S. firms |
| Investment banking, 99-100 | in construction, 137 |
| Glass-Steagall Act, 99 | motives, 213-214 |
| growth, 84 | |
| separation from commercial banking, 108-109 | Kiosque, 172-173 |
| investment income, 65 | Knowledge-based industries |
| Invisibles | foreign revenues, 63, 67 |
| account, components, 59, 62, 64 | integrated production systems, 278 |
| account, contribution to total U.S. exports, 32 | new-model organizations, 278-282 |
| surplus, 58 | poor services trade data, 63-64 |
| Involuntary part-time employment, 225-226 | stratification in jobs, 254 |

| Knowledge-based services characteristics, 36, 37 jobs, compared with high-technology manufacturing, 262 | Licensing, U.S. firms, 189-221 circumstances of overseas licensing, 209, 210-212 complex strategies, 220-221 |
|---|--|
| OECD nations, 71 | illegal practices, 215-216 |
| shift in U.S. strength toward, 46 | newly industrializing countries in Asia, 206-207, 207 |
| Labor | policy environment, 215-216 |
| Labor constraints on U.S. construction firms, 144-145 | pricing, 202-203 |
| construction costs, 136 overseas hiring for construction projects, 127 | response to Japanese competition, 212 revenues, 210 |
| Labor force, U.S. | revenues and R&D spending, 210, 211 |
| characteristics, 233, 235, 238, 239 | strategies, see Licensing strategies to Japan, 202-203 |
| contingent workers, 227, 243-249, 255-256 | U.S. receipts and payments, 191-192, 195-197, 197 |
| demands of flexibility and efficiency, 261 | Liquidity-enhancing products, 50 |
| growth, 231 | Litigation |
| immigrants, 250-252 | and cross-licensing, 211-212 |
| job creation, 230-238 | Local area networks (LANs), 158 |
| jobs in the services, 223-256 | |
| mobility, 238-243 | Macy's, restructuring and employment, 242-243 |
| Labor unions | Management technologies |
| and new forms of work organization, 282 | construction, 125 |
| decline, 225 | consulting, 57 |
| non-manufacturing employees, 236 | in transition, MetroBank example, 288-291 |
| representation by industry, 236 | strategies for U.S. engineering and construction |
| Less developed countries (LDCs) | firms, 146 |
| concerns over services liberalization, 300 | Manufacturing jobs, 253, 262-263 |
| construction financing, 136-137 | vertical/lateral mobility, 238-243 |
| economic growth, 128-130, 130 | worker earnings by age, sex, and education, |
| engineering and construction firms, 119 | 233-236 |
| engineering and construction market, 128-130 | Merchandise, downstream linkages in design and |
| intellectual property protection, 318-321 | construction, 127-128 |
| lending risks, 85 | Mercury, U.K. telecommunications, 174 |
| lending to, history, 102 Letters of credit, 97 | MetroBank, reorganization, 263, 283, 288-291 |
| Liberalization, trade in services | changing jobs, 288-289 |
| and national development strategies, 302 | computer enhancement of people's skills, 273 new products, 288-289 |
| benefits, 46, 72-73 | Microwave transmission, 158 |
| Brazil's perspective, 70 | Ministry of Finance, Japan |
| effects on U.S. current account, 71 | liberalization of financial markets, 104 |
| indirect benefits to U. S., 75-76 | Ministry of International Trade and industry (MITI), |
| possible gains through, 70-75 | Japan, 104, 301 |
| sectoral questions, 71-73 | and technological innovation, 303-305 |
| Licensing, technical, 191-221 | technology support, 310-311 |
| arms-length, 193-194, see also Arms-length licensing | Ministry of Research and Technology, West |
| international, 194-197 | Germany, 306 |
| pricing, 195, 196 | Mixed credits, 346-347 |
| protection for intellectual property, 196 | construction financing, 137 |
| revenues, reasons for increase, 195 | Models, mathematical, in service industries, 38 |
| the license agreement, 196 | Monetary Control Act, 1980, 110 |
| U.S. international competitiveness, 192-194 | Multinational corporations |
| Licensing agreements | cash management services, banks, 92-93 |
| management attention, 196 | computer applications, 267-269 |
| restrictive clauses and antitrust enforcement, 215-216 | foreign direct investment and foreign governments 218-219 |
| Licensing, European firms, 201 | information flows, 270 |
| Licensing fees | licensing, 191, 192-194, 208-214 |
| U. S., international, 191-192, 191 | U.Sbased, competitive advantages, 55 |
| Licensing strategies, 208-214, 220-221 | , |
| integration, 208-212 | National Science Foundation, 29, 217 |
| joint ventures, 213-214 | construction technology, support, 149 |
| licensing foreign technologies, 214 | R&D statistics 308 |

| National security and technology trade, U.S. policy, 215 | growth in international banking, 85 services exports and imports by member nations, |
|--|---|
| Naturalized citizens in U.S. engineering work force, 198 | 66, 69 telecommunications issues, 304 |
| Negotiatiions | world service exports, 65, 68 |
| international forums, 321-323, 323 | |
| objectives, banking, 111-112 | Packaged software, 157-158 |
| New Austrian Tunneling Method, 140 | benefits, 160 |
| Newly industrializing countries (NICs) | Packet switching, 304 |
| Asia, technology development and licensing, 206-208 | Partially automated fine grading, 140-141 Part-time work, 248-249, 249, see also Contingent |
| concerns over services liberalization, 300 | workers |
| engineering and construction firms, 119 | by industry, 249 |
| intellectual property protection, 318-321 | involuntary, 248 |
| lending risks, 85-86 | Macy's, 242 |
| R&D spending on technology, 207-208 | Passenger fares |
| services in development strategy, 302 | export figures, 59 |
| New-model organizations, 278-282, 283 | imports, 60, 64, 65 |
| characteristics, 261, 279-281 | Patents |
| cost structure, changes, 284 | international, 205, 206, 206 |
| impacts on competitiveness, 282-283 | in U.S. by foreigners, 200 |
| knowledge/skill requirements, 279-280 | in U.S. by Americans, 200, zoo |
| macro, micro levels, 285 | licensing rights, 196 |
| manufacturing firms, 279 | software, 320-321 Pay and benefits, 225 |
| New York Telephone, organizational changes and employment, 244-245 | service jobs, 225 |
| Nippon Telegraph & Telephone Corp., 166 | Personal computers, 259 |
| preferential purchasing policies, 311 | business purchases, 266 |
| regulation, 173-174 | market in Europe, 168 |
| Non-tariff trade barriers, 9, 74-75, 296-298 | software, 157-158 |
| and negotiations, 297, 345 | Piping, management technologies, construction, 125 |
| effects on transfer of knowledge, 72 | Pharmaceutical industry, licensing, 210 |
| examples, 296-297 | Policy, foreign government, see Foreign government |
| professional licensing, 317-318 | policies |
| rationales, 297 | Policy, trade, see Trade policy |
| regulations as, 312-313, 312 | Policy, U. S., 22-31, 327-376 |
| standards and licensing requirements, 315, 315 | affecting U.S. competitiveness in international |
| types, 74-75, 297-298 | banking, 82-83 |
| U. S., as trade issues, 338 | banking, future, 111-113 |
| | consistent position in negotiations, 322-323 |
| 0661 1 1 4 24 1 12 00 | development and integration, alternatives, 371 |
| Off-balance-sheet items, banking, 99 | development of human capital, 287 |
| Office of International Banking and Portfolio Invest- | domestic and trade, linkage, 296 financing of engineering and construction projects, |
| ment, 350 Offshore banking, 87,80 | 120-121 |
| Offshore banking, 87-89 definition, 87 | handicaps, 325 |
| Offshore production, 231, 232 | industrial and technology, 361-369 |
| Offsite prefabrication construction, 141-143 | information technology, 186-188 |
| Oil prices and engineering and construction projects, | institutional memory, 341 |
| 119 | linkage of foreign and domestic, 322-323 |
| Onshore banking, 82, 87-89 | linkages with international competitiveness, 23, 24, |
| definition, 87 | 27, 49, 52, 108, 330, 333, 348-354, 373 |
| direct investment, 88-89, 88 | organization and effectiveness, 369-372 |
| retail, 100-101 | R&D, technology, 193, 197, 216-217, 361-367 |
| Open Systems Interconnection (OSI), 316-317, 368 | services, coordination, 332, 336, 370 |
| Operations and maintenance services, opportunities | short-term view, effects, 339-340 |
| for engineering and construction firms, 145 | subsidized financing for international projects, 152 |
| Organization for Economic Cooperation and Develop- | tax, examples, 374-376 |
| ment (OECD), 9, 15, 25 | technical licensing, 215-217 |
| design and engineering, market among members, | technology development, options, 23, 24, 30, 203, |
| 133 | 215-217, 305 |

| telecommunications, 353-354 | U.S. policy, 361-367 |
|--|--|
| trade, services in, 333-348 | U.S. military, 30, 148-151, 216-217, 366-367 |
| Post, telegraph, and telephone authorities (PTTs), 18 | Responsibility, employee and new-model organiza- |
| competition from, 179-180 | tions, 279-281, 285-287 |
| telecommunications tariffs, 304-305 | MetroBank example, 289-291 |
| Postal savings system, Japan, 104, 115 | Retailing, career paths, 242 |
| Postwar period | Royalties and licensing fees |
| foreign investments by U.S. firms, 195 | data needed, 342 |
| growth of international banking, 81, 113 | regulation by foreign governments, 218-219 |
| Pound, British, 97 | U. S., international, 191-192, 191, 202-203 |
| Price-risk-transferring products, 50 | |
| Problem loans to developing countries, 111 | Second-sourcing, microelectronics, 210-211 |
| Procurement, Federal Government, 366-367, 369 | Securities Industry Association, 99 |
| and U.S. competitiveness, 367 Product-centered organizations, 281 | Securitization, 10-11, 82, 89, 93 |
| Citibank, 282-283 | changes in competitive environment, 84 |
| Production costs, and international competitiveness, | reduced demand for traditional financial services |
| 47 | 89 Salf ampleyment 246, 248 |
| Productivity | Self-employment, 246, 248 |
| and employment, services, 229-230 | Service industries competitiveness, 47-57 |
| computer software, 161 | economic adjustment, 76-78 |
| construction, 141-143 | employment, 225-256 |
| Professional jobs, services, 226 | employment stratification, 241-245 |
| v. manufacturing, 262 | growth and new jobs, 254 |
| Professional services, engineering and construction, | high-growth, 234 |
| Us., 119 | U.S. national study for GATT, 298 |
| Protection for intellectual property, see Intellectual | vertical/lateral job mobility, 238-243 |
| property protection, Patenting | Service occupations |
| | employment, 225-256 |
| Qualitative comparisons, services, 48 | Services |
| | deindustrialization, 301 |
| Reagan Administration | development strategies, policy tools, 296, 311-321 |
| R&D funding, commercial v. military, 217 | dominance in new jobs, 232-233, 232 |
| R&D support, 149 | exports, expansion, 58 |
| Reciprocal market access, Japan, 107 | external purchases, 56-57 |
| Regulatory policies, foreign government, 312-315 Relationship banking, 102 | foreign revenues, 63 |
| Reputation | government monopolies, 75 |
| advantages in integration and expansion, 54 | heterogeneity, 35-36 imports, by region, 65 |
| in selling services, 48 | in the world economy, 43-78 |
| Research and development | leading exporters, 66, 69 |
| comparative funding, U.S. and foreign firms, 19 | leading importers, 69 |
| construction-related technologies, Federal support, | need for a foreign presence in marketing, 52-53 |
| 149 | negotiation forums, 4, 321-323 |
| construction technology, Japan, 144 | OTA import/export estimates, 62, 66 |
| construction technology, U. S., 144 | policies affecting, 296 |
| engineering and construction, 15, 121, 138 | post-industrial view, 301 |
| engineering and construction consortia, 151 | providers, classified by markets, 36 |
| foreign, 200-208, 217, 307 | public procurement, 311-312 |
| international cooperation, 324-325 | R&D spending in U. S., 308, 309, 361-367 |
| international joint ventures, 213 | trends in employment, 228-230 |
| joint industry/government, Japan, 165-166 | U.S. balance of payments surplus, 61 |
| productivity, 193, 200 | U.S. comparative advantage, 70 |
| proprietary technology, 192-193 | U.S. political agenda, 334-335 |
| services, U.S. spending, 39, 308, 309 software, 161-162 | world trade, 65-69, 68, 69 |
| spending, Japan, 201, 203-205, 205 | Services and goods |
| spending, Japan, 201, 203-203, 203 spending, other nations, 201-205, 205, 306-311 | evolving industrial structure, 31-42 |
| tax credits, 363-364 | Service sector advisory committees, 343-344 |
| U. S., 198-200, 199, 216-217, 361-367 | Services exports definition, 57 |
| ,,,, | ucililiuon, 37 |

| distribution by region, 60, 63 | Specialized skills |
|---|--|
| OTA estimates by industry, 62, 66 | hiring patterns, 240 |
| Services trade | new-model organizations, 279 |
| balance, U. S., 65 | Standby letters of credit, 98, 99, 110 |
| barriers, 73-75 | Stevenson-Wydler Technology innovation Act, 1980, |
| data, 61, 63, 112, 341-342 | 29, 360, 364-365 |
| data, OTA estimates, 61-65 | Strategic Defense Initiative, 188, 306 |
| database, options, 341-342 | Stratification Stratification |
| measuring, 57-59 | knowledge-based service industries, 254 |
| Service workers | |
| | labor market, services, 226 new-model organizations, 261, 287 |
| earnings by age, sex, and education, 233-236 | , , |
| skills, 237-238 | Supercomputers, 267 |
| Sheltered industries, effects of liberalization, 72 | data processing, 181 |
| Site management, construction, 123-124 | Super-regional banks, 109 |
| Skills, 276-277 | Swaps, 98, 99 |
| computers, job deskilling, 273 | SWIFT (Society of Worldwide Interbank Financial |
| computers, job upskilling, 273-275 | Telecommunications), 91, 177, 179, 316 |
| data gatekeeper jobs, 278, 279 | Systems design, 285 |
| lateral job movement, 240 | and people's skills, 272-278 |
| Macy's restructuring example, 242-243 | |
| MetroBank example, 289 | Tax payments, foreign, 374 |
| new-model organizations, 261 | Tax policy, U. S., effects on international competitive- |
| service jobs, 226, 237-238 | ness in services, 374-376 |
| social, 276 | Tax Reform Act, 1986, provisions, 374-376 |
| Small businesses | Technical licensing, 18-20, 191-221 |
| {commercial lending to, 101 | U.S. tax policies, impacts, 375-376 |
| overseas licensing strategies, 208 | Technology |
| Societe International de Telecommunications | computer applications in the services, 257-291 |
| Aeronautiques (SITA), 177, 179 | construction productivity, 141-143 |
| Software, 10, 157-169 | engineering and construction, 14, 138-144 |
| benefits of liberalization for U. S., 71-73 | foreign, access to, 365-366 |
| copyrights, 166 | in banking, 50, 81, 91-93 |
| 1. 0 | |
| European market and industry, 166-168, 167 | international standards, 315-317, 324 |
| foreign competition, 162-163 | military R&D and civilian benefits, 366-367 |
| France, market, 166, 167 | R&D, U.S. policies, 361-367 |
| intellectual property protection, 166, 318-321 | science base in the services, 37-38 |
| international standards, 271 | standards, U.S. policy, 363, 367-369 |
| Japanese language, 164-165 | U.S. advantages, 37-42, 197, 198-208 |
| Japan's industry and market, 158, 163-166 | use, summary, 37-42 |
| pirating, 318, 320-321 | Technology brokering |
| productivity in generation, 161-162 | U. S., (construction, 143-144 |
| R&D, 161-162 | Technology trade, 189-221 |
| standardized applications packages, 157-158, 266 | licensing strategies, 208-214 |
| technological advances, 39, 267 | [J. S. licensing overseas, 204 |
| trade barriers in Japan, 166 | U.S. licensing with Asia, 206-207, 207 |
| U.S. competitiveness, 16-18, 73 | U.S. receipts and payments, 195-197 |
| U.S. firms in Europe, 166-168 | TELEBRAS, 174 |
| [J. S. industry, 162-163, 162 | Telecommunications, 169-180 |
| West Germany, market, 166-167, 167 | banking, 89, 91-93 |
| world market, competition, 168-169 | benefits of liberalization for U. S., 73 |
| South Korea | competitive environment, 169-175 |
| engineering and construction, 119, 132, 133 | domestic policy and international competitiveness, |
| technology development and licensing, 206-207 | 349, 352-354 |
| U.S. joint ventures, 213 | deregulation, 158, 170 |
| U.S. technical licensing, 212 | equipment market, Japan, 173 |
| Specialists | foreign regulatory policies, 172-175, 313-315, 314 |
| external, services purchased, 56 | General Motors/EDS planned network, 178 |
| Specialization | international tariffs, 304-305 |
| | |
| purchases of overseas technology, 214 | international standards, 354 |
| U.S. engineering and construction firms, 138 | management decisions, 260-261 |

| market changes and New York Telephone, 244 multinational banks, 92 pricing, volume-based v. time-based, 304-305 revenues, international, 169 suppliers, procurement policies, 171, 175 technology, history, 176 U.S. trade policy, 180 | Uruguay Round, 3, 4, 23, 32, 70 foreign direct investment, 299 foreign government policies, 293-325 intellectual property protection, 215, 318 trade barriers in the services, 73 U.S. and Foreign Commercial Service (US&FCS), 23, 26, 345-346 |
|--|---|
| Temporary employment, 56, 247-248, see also Contingent workers | U.S. balance of payments, 58-61 history, 58 |
| by industry, 247 | OTA estimates, 61 |
| Federal Government, 247 Telenet, 176, 179 | services v. goods, 6, 8 |
| Teletel/Minitel, 159, 171, 172-173 | U.S. banking regulations impacts on U.S. international competitiveness, 82 |
| Teletext, 159, see also Videotex | shifts, 83 |
| Tertiary services, 20, 36, 37 | U.S. banks |
| foreign revenues, 63, 67 | future outlook, 115-116 |
| industries, 228 | restriction abroad, 112 |
| technology, 262 | U.S. construction firms, international market, |
| work reorganizations, 286 | 130-132, 131 |
| Texas Instruments, 211-212 | U.S. economy |
| cross-licensing with Japan, 220 | employment and structural change, 228-238 |
| Tokyo Round negotiations, 4 | jobs, 225-226 |
| congressional involvement, 335 | occupations, 230 |
| non-tariff barriers for goods, 75 | U.S. International Trade Commission, 127, 212 |
| Tokyo Stock Exchange, 312, 313 | U.S. Trade Representative, 10, 25, 26, 322, 325 |
| Tourism, 53 | congressional options, 336-337 |
| import figures, 60, 64 Trade and Development Program, 26, 345, 347-348 | resources for Uruguay Round, 342-345, 344 |
| Trade and Tariff Act, 1984, 335 | policy, 16 |
| Trade barriers, see also Non-tariff barriers | Value-added networks (VANS), 159, 176-180 |
| licensing strategies, 208 | foreign government restrictions, 179-180 |
| lower, adjustment to, 77 | in banking, 91 |
| services, effects, 73-75 | markets, 176-180 |
| Trade financing, 96-99 | ties with database services, 183 |
| letters of credit, 96-97 | United Kingdom, 174 |
| standby letters of credit, 98 | U.S. firms, 177-179 |
| Training technologies, 359-361 | Value-added services, 176-180 |
| Department of Defense, 359-360 | Videotex, 159, 180, 183 |
| Transborder data flows, 17, 187 | Teletel/Minitel, 171, 172-173 |
| international issues, 304-305 | United Kingdom, 174 |
| Transportation | U. S., 180 |
| export figures, 59 Travel | Western Electric, 171 |
| export figures, 59 | West Germany |
| Turn-key projects, 122 | services deficit, 70 |
| | telecommunications regulations, 172, 314 |
| | Word processors, Japanese language, 165 |
| Underground economy, 249, 252-253 | Work organization, 257-291 |
| categories, 252 | and deskilling/upskilling, 278 |
| size, 252-253 | groups, supervisory control, 280-281 |
| United Kingdom | macro level, 260 |
| Alvey program, 306, 307-309 | micro level, 260 |
| technology policies, 306 | rigid v. adaptive, 275, 277, 278, 278 |
| telecommunications regulations, 174 | tasks, jobs, and skills, 276-277 |
| United Nations Industrial Development Organization, 300 | trends, 285-286 Work reorganization |
| United Nations Council on Trade and Development, | Citibank, 282-283 |
| 300 | insurance industry, 264 |
| Universal banks, 99 | Macy's, 242-243 |
| Unreported earnings, see Underground economy | MetroBank, 263, 288-291 |
| Up/Down construction, 140 | New York Telephone. 244-245 |

World Bank, 111
disbursements for construction, 133, 135
financing of design contracts, 122
World economy
benefits of reductions in trade barriers, 46
change, effects on U.S. trade policy, 333-334
services in, 43-78
World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), 9,
25, 319-320

World services trade, 65-69, 68, 69 exports, by type, 69 exports, origin by region, 68 individual countries, 66, 68, 69

Yen, 97 growing prominence, 107 in international transactions, 104