

Getting from the Beijing International Airport to the Lakeview Hotel

The Niehaus Center has arranged for your transportation from the Beijing International Airport to the Lakeview Hotel at the Center's expense. Please meet your driver in the "Greeting Hall" after you clear Customs and pick up your luggage. The driver will be holding a sign with either your name or "Niehaus Center". The cost of the car has already been paid by the Niehaus Center, so there is no need to pay, nor tip, the driver.

On the off-chance you should fail to connect with your arranged driver, please proceed to the taxi line, and give your driver the Chinese instructions below. The Niehaus Center will reimburse you for the cab fare. If your flight should land early, and you do not see your driver right away, please wait at least until your scheduled arrival time before taking alternate transportation. Should you encounter any problems, please phone Kris Johnson (in Beijing) at (00 1) 609-933-5209.

The contact information for the Lakeview Hotel is:

Telephone: (86 10) 8268-9999

Address: 127 Zhongguancun North Road, Haidian District, Beijing (at Peking University)

Please keep in mind that should you need to take a taxi, you will need to pay the fare in Chinese currency. There are currency exchange offices in the airport. Alternatively, you may wish to order some Chinese currency through your own bank before you leave the U.S. to have with you when you reach Beijing. (This process may take up to three days.)

Instructions for the taxi driver:

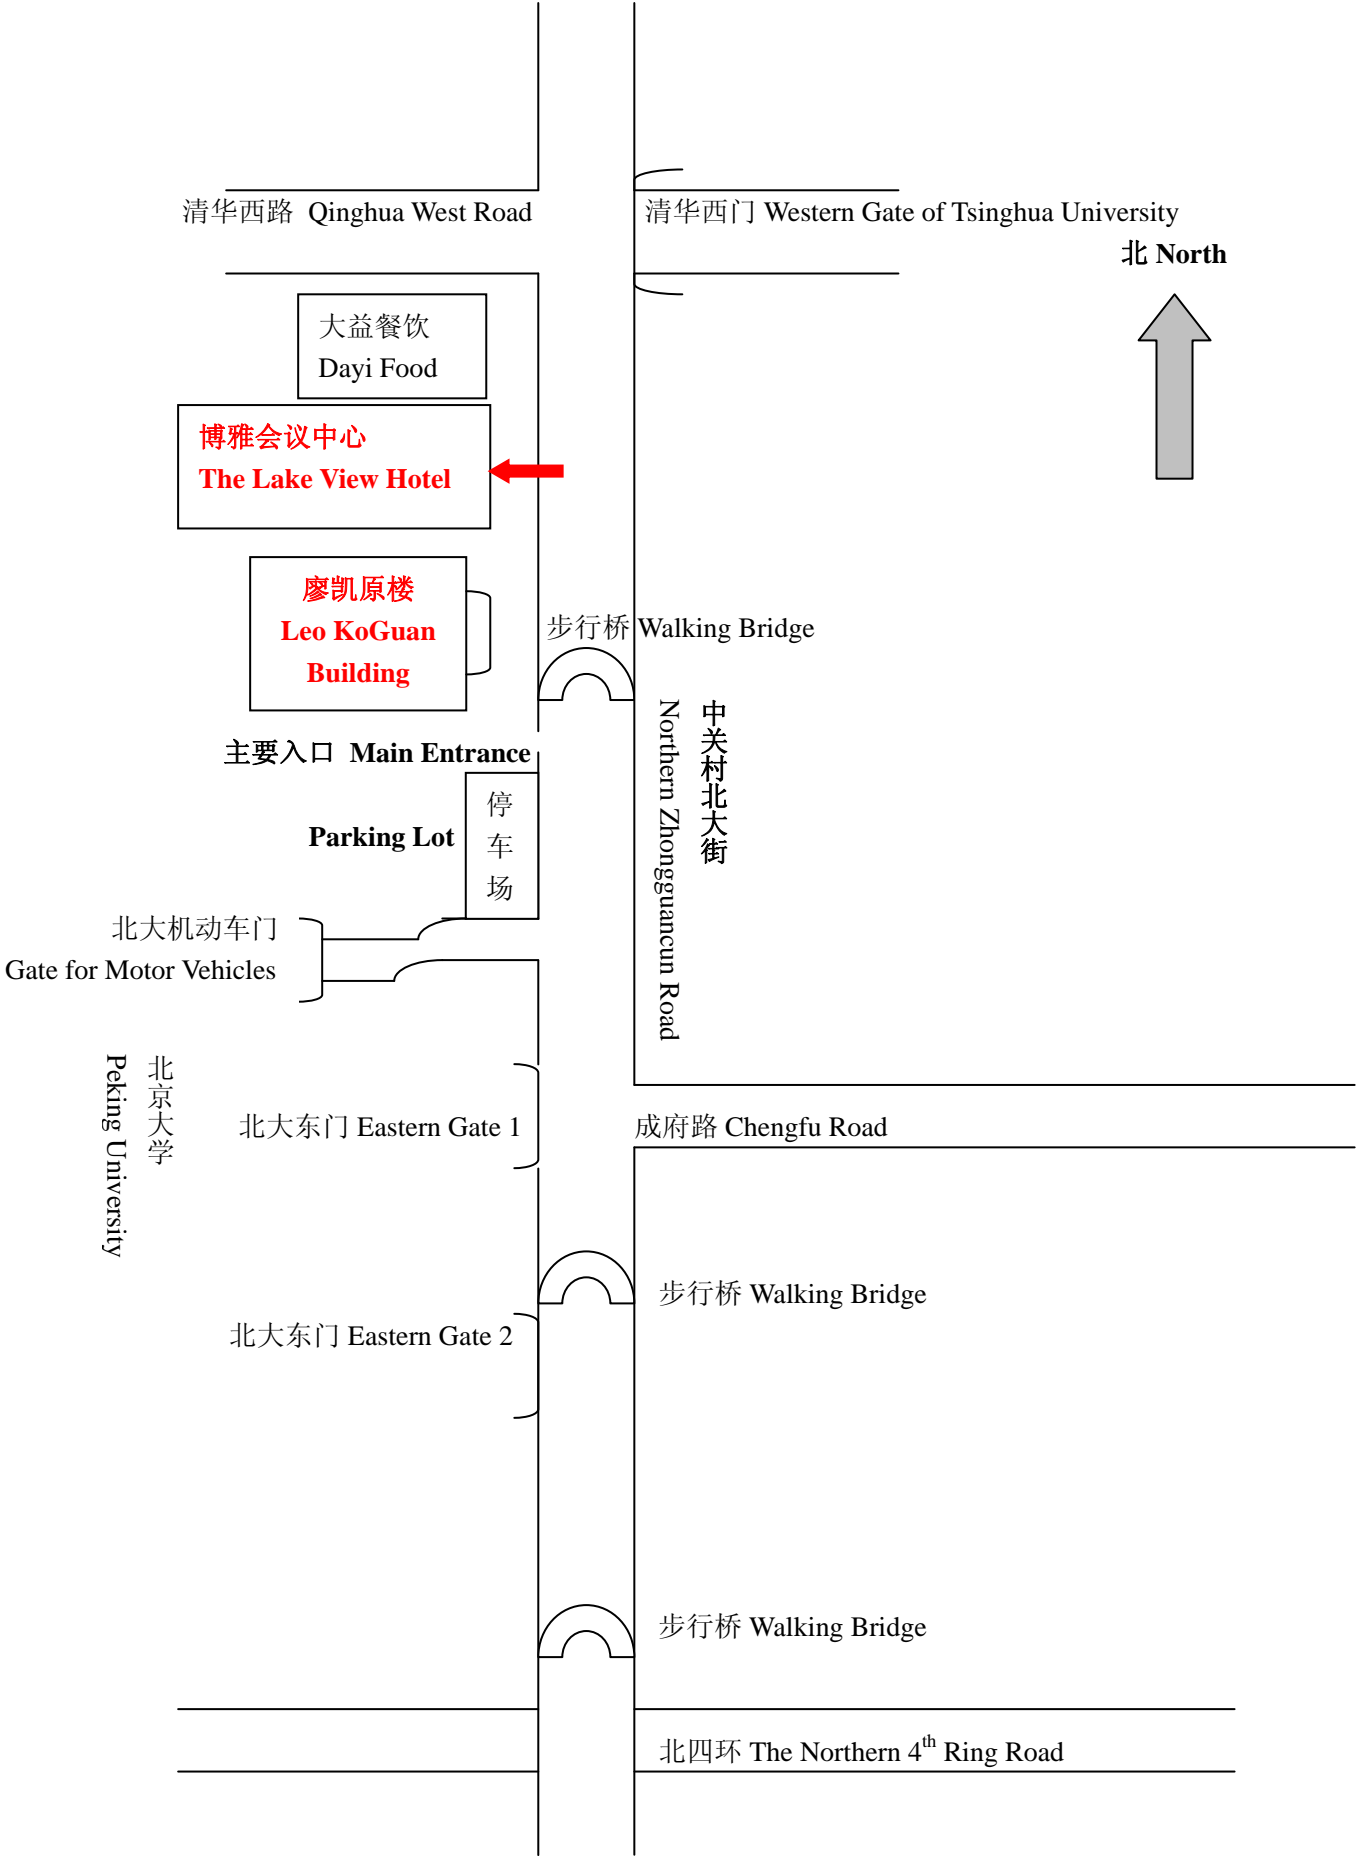

我去北大博雅国际会议中心.

地址: 北京市海淀区中关村北大街 127 号, 在 北京大学未名湖畔

When you reach the hotel, proceed to the registration desk and check in. If you are not handed a conference folder, please ask for one. The Niehaus Center has paid your room charge (up to six nights), but please keep in mind that the hotel will require a credit card from you for incidental charges.

When you receive your folder, please note the time and place we will meet for the sightseeing tour on Monday, December 8. This information will be on the first page.
