

Friends of the Princeton University Library
Prize for Outstanding Scholarship by a Graduate Student
Competition for Essays Written in the 2007–2008 Academic Year

Application Form
Due Date: July 6, 2009

Author's name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: (home) _____ (office) _____

E-mail: _____

Academic department: _____

Advisor: _____

Title of essay: _____

Materials used from Rare Books and Special Collections: _____

The 2008 Friends of the Princeton University Library Prize for Outstanding Scholarship by a Graduate Student will be presented to an author who was enrolled in a degree program in the Princeton University Graduate School in the academic year 2007–2008. Essays must be based on research in one or more of the divisions of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections of Princeton University Library (Manuscripts, Rare Books, Graphic Arts, Cotsen Children's Library, Historic Maps, Numismatics, Public Policy Papers, University Archives, Western Americana, and Scheide Library). I affirm that I am eligible to compete for this prize.

(Signature) (Date)

Please include this completed form with your essay submission. Send to: Gretchen Oberfranc, Princeton University Library Chronicle, Department of Rare Books and Special Collections, Firestone Library, Princeton, NJ 08544 (goberfra@Princeton.edu).