Publications by James Trussell

Trussell, James, and Barbara Vaughan. Contraceptive failure, method-related discontinuation, and resumption of use: Results from the 1995 National Survey of Family Growth. Family Planning Perspectives 31(2):64-72, 93, March/April 1999.

Moreau, Caroline, James Trussell, and Natalie Bajos. The determinants and circumstances of use of EC pills in France in the context of direct pharmacy access. Contraception 74(6), December 2006 in press.

Trussell, James. Bleeding after use of the levonorgestrel regimen of emergency contraception: Concordance between women’s reports of their menstrual periods and an objective algorithm). Contraception 74(6), December 2006 in press.

Foster, Angel M., Lisa Wynn, Aida Rouhana, Chelsea Polis, and James Trussell. Disseminating on-line reproductive health information in Arabic: Results from a survey of users of an emergency contraception website. CyberOrient, in press.

Work in Progress

Trussell, James. The cost of unintended pregnancy in the United States.

Wynn, Lisa, Angel Foster, and James Trussell. Sex, that act, intercourse, outercourse, hooking up, doing it: sexual health language in emails to an emergency contraception website.
Wynn, Lisa, Joanna Erdman, Angel Foster, and James Trussell. Discourses on harm reduction, women’s rights, and an ethics of accountability in debates over nonprescription access to emergency contraceptive pills in Canada and the US.

Davidoff, Frank, and James Trussell. Plan B and the politics of doubt.