

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This report was sponsored by the Office of Technology Assessment (OTA), the Congressional Research Service (CRS), and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF). Any views expressed herein should not necessarily be attributed to OTA, RWJF, or RAND. Helpful comments on an earlier draft were provided by Lu Ann Aday, Karen Davis, Paula Diehr, Deborah Freund, Chip Kahn, Lawrence Klein, Patricia Nazemetz, Charles Nelson, Joseph Newhouse, Carl Scott, Pamela Farley Short, and Patricia Willis. Several staff of the sponsoring organizations made helpful comments on drafts, as well as facilitating the study and its publication: including Denise Dougherty and Tami Mark from OTA; Janet Kline, Mark Merlis, Madeleine Smith, Mallery Stouffer, and Michelle Harlan from CRS; and Joel Cantor from RWJF. The authors thank Roald Euler and Ellen Harrison for computer programming assistance and Jeff Miller and Audrey Smolkin for research assistance.
