

CONTENTS

| Chapter | Page |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Congressional Summary | 3 |
| NSF Education Directorate Programs | 3 |
| Criteria for Congressional Evaluation | 5 |
| Graduate Science and Engineering Training | 5 |
| Educational Analysis and Research | 5 |
| II. Science and Technology Activities of the Federal Government | |
| in Relation to a New Department of Education * | 9 |
| Introduction | 9 |
| A Department of Education and the Education Directorate of the National | |
| Science Foundation | 9 |
| Background | 9 |
| Specific Programs | 14 |
| An Alternative Approach: Postponement or Transfer. | 18 |
| Educational Research and Development Functions Transferred From the | |
| Department of Health, Education, and Welfare | 19 |
| Collection and Analysis of Educational Statistics. | 19 |
| Administrative Research | 19 |
| Research on Education | 20 |
| Should a New Department of Education Be Created? | 21 |
| HEW's Education Division | 21 |
| A Department of Education and Science | 22 |
| Conclusions | 23 |
| The NSF Science Education Directorate Programs | 23 |
| Is Postponement the Course? | 24 |
| Analytic and Research Functions | 24 |
| Appendix | |
| S. 991 -A Bill To Establish a Department of Education, and for Other | |
| Purposes. | 27 |