Making the Connection
Agenda for the Princeton Caribbean Connection’s Second Annual
A Taste of Carnival

Friday, April 8, 2005
10:00 pm  Island Spice (Wilson Black Box)
Opening Celebration

Saturday, April 9, 2005
8:30 - 10:00 am  Breakfast and Registration (Friends Center)
Attendees check-in and receive conference materials
10 - 10:30 am  Official Welcome to Princeton University and the conference
10:30 - 11:00 am  Opening Speaker
11:00 - 12:00 pm  Session I
12:00 - 1:00 pm  Session II
Small group discussions on various topics such as the “conflict” between different categories of blacks.
1:00 - 2:00 pm  Meet and Greet/ Lunch
A chance to make new friends, look at Caribbean art and enjoy a light lunch.
2:00 - 4:00 pm  Film and Discussion
4:00 - 4:30 pm  Closing Speaker and Remarks
4:30 - 5:30 pm  Break
5:30 - 7:30 pm  A Caribbean Banquet (Carl A. Field Center)
Menu items include jerk and curry chicken, lambi, sweet plantains, beef patties, griot, rice and beans, roti, flan and more! Wash it all down with some kola champagne or mango juice! Semi-formal attire requested
7:30 - 8:00 pm  Break
8:00 - 9:30 pm  Cultural Show (McCormick 101)
Dance groups, step teams, poets, and singers from various schools showcase their talent at the first annual PCC Cultural Show! Featuring Ballet Folklorico, Culturelly Yours, Highsteppers, Princeton Paws and more! You don’t want to miss this!
9:30 - 10:30 pm  Break
10:30 -  Carl A. Fields Center)
Closing Celebration

Sunday, April 10, 2005
12:00 - 1:00 pm  Breakfast & Closing (Whig Hall)
1:00 - 4:00 pm  A Taste of Carnival (Frist South Lawn)
Outdoor celebration of Caribbean culture, complete with vendors, Caribbean food, Caribbean music, performances and more!
The sessions will be taking place in the Friends Center:

The dinner will take place in the Carl A. Field's Center: