Princeton University
Department of Sociology
Culture and Inequality Workshop
Fall, 2002

September 23  Ivan Szelenyi (Sociology, Yale), “Towards a Comparative Historical Theory of the Underclass: The Roma of Central and Southern Europe”

October 7  Eszter Hargittai (Sociology, Princeton), “Knowing Where To Look: Inequality and Internet Skills”

November 11  Victor Nee (Sociology, Cornell), “Tipping Points and Inequality”

November 25  Kelly Hoffman and Miguel Centeno (Sociology, Princeton), “The Lopsided Continent: Inequality in Latin America”

December 9  Roland Benabou (Economics, Princeton), “Belief in a Just World and Redistributive Politics”

All seminars are in 165 Wallace Hall, on Mondays at 12:15pm until 1:30pm. Papers, when available, will circulate electronically to the Sociology list.