from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, 4.1-7, 17-32; 5.1-16 (Genevan version)

I, therefore, being a prisoner of the Lord, pray you that ye walk worthy of the vocation whereunto ye are called. 2 With all humbleness of mind and meekness, with long suffering, supporting one another through love. 3 Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your vocation. 5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, 6 one God and Father of all, which is above all and through all and in you all 7 But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 17 This I say therefore and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other gentiles walk, in vanity of their mind, 18 having their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them because of the hardness of their heart: 19 Which being past feeling, have given themselves unto wantonness, to work all uncleanness, even with greediness. 20 But ye have not so learned from Christ. 21 If so be ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus, 22 That is, that ye cast off, concerning the conversation in time past, the old man, which is corrupt through the deceivable lusts, 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind 24 And put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. 25 Wherefore cast offlying and speak every man truth unto his neighbor, for we are members of one another. 26 Be angry, but sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath. 27 Neither give place to the Devil. 28 Let him that stole, steal no more, but let him rather labor and work with his hands, that he may have to give unto him that needeth. 1 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children 2 And walk in love, even as Christ hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, to be an offering and a sacrifice of a sweet-smelling savour to God. 3 But fornication and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not once be named among you, as it becometh Saints. 4 Neither filthiness, neither foolish talking, neither jesting, which are things not comely, but rather giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, neither unclean person, nor covetous person, which is an idolator, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God. 6 Let no man deceive you with vain words, for for such things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. 7 Be not therefore companions with them. 8 For ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord; walk as children of light. 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness and truth) 10 Approving that which is pleasing to the Lord 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but even reprove them rather. 12 For it is shame even to speak of the things which are done of them in secret. 13 But all things when they are reproved of the light are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest. 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and stand up from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. 15 Take heed therefore that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise. 16 redeeming the time, for the days are evil.
