Friday, April 7
Meditation
Noon–1 p.m • Women’s Center Resource Room, Frist 242
Learn and practice meditation techniques that will help you regain your natural state of balance and equanimity, reduce stress, and focus fully on the present moment. Jill Gutowski, a certified yoga instructor, and co-director of Four Winds Yoga in Pennington, will facilitate the sessions which meet every Friday. Street clothing is appropriate. All are welcome. Cosponsored with the Frist Campus Center.

Friday, April 7
Film—Saving Face
10 p.m • McCormick 101
One of 2005’s best LGBT films, Saving Face is a love story about a Chinese-American lesbian dealing with coming out and the news that her widowed mother is pregnant. In this phenomenon film about cultural expectations, both struggle to accept themselves and each other while attempting to “save face” within their community. Cosponsored with the Fields Center, the International Center, the LGBT Center, and the University Film Organization.

Monday, April 10
Documentary film Wall and discussion with director Simone Bitton
7:30 p.m • McCormick 101
Wall is a cinematic meditation on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in which the filmmaker blurs the lines of hatred by asserting her double identity as Jew and Arab. In an original documentary approach, the film follows the separation fence that is destroying one of the most historically significant landscapes in the world, while imprisoning one people and enclosing the other. Come see this award-winning documentary and stay for a discussion with the director. Organized by the Princeton Committee on Palestine. Cosponsored with the Committee on Film Studies, the Center for Human Values, the Women’s Center, the Department of History, Princeton Middle East Society, the Department and Program of Near East Studies, and the Transregional Institute. Supported by SALAAM and the Fields Center.

Wednesday, April 19
Lunch Discussion: Faith and Sexuality in America, with Rev. Debra W. Haffner
Noon–1:30 p.m • Frist 243
See description below.

Wednesday, April 19
Rev. Haffner on Faith and Sexuality in America
4:30 p.m • McCoosh 46
Rev. Debra W. Haffner will speak on “Sexual Morality, Justice, and Healing: Faith and Sexuality in America.” Haffner is the director of the Religious Institute on Sexual Morality, Justice, and Healing. She previously served as the chief executive officer of SIECUS, the Sexual Information and Education Council of the United States. Haffner is the author of From Diapers to Dating: A Parent’s Guide to Raising Sexually Healthy Children, which was called by Kirkus Review “the very best kind of guide for being a better parent.” And Beyond the Big Talk: Every Parent’s Guide to Raising Sexually Healthy Teens, which the American Library Association’s Booklist says, “offers solid advice and resources to parents, who will greatly appreciate her candor.” She is also the co-author of a college sexuality textbook and What I’ve Learned About Sex. Rev. Haffner has a master’s of divinity from the Union Theological Seminary and a master’s of public health from the Yale University School of Medicine. This lecture is sponsored by the Center for the Study of Religion and Race and open to the public. For more information, visit www.princeton.edu/~csrelig.

Friday, April 21
Meditation
Noon–1 p.m • Women’s Center Resource Room, Frist 242
Learn and practice meditation techniques that will help you regain your natural state of balance and equanimity, reduce stress, and focus fully on the present moment. Jill Gutowski, a certified yoga instructor, and co-director of Four Winds Yoga in Pennington, will facilitate the sessions which meet every Friday. Street clothing is appropriate. All are welcome. Cosponsored with the Frist Campus Center.

Tuesday, April 25
Day to Eliminate Racism
9 a.m—Noon • Liberation Hall, Fields Center
The YWCA Princeton and the YWCA of Trenton welcome the public to their second annual observance of the National Day of Commitment to Eliminate Racism. A full morning of events is planned and includes breakfast, introduction of the new CEOs—Judith Hurton of Princeton and Jose Hernandez of Trenton; keynote address “Connecting Race with Social Class” by Marty Johnson, founder of Isles, Inc. in Trenton; presentation by GAIA (Growing up Accepted as an Individual in America); awards to New Jersey high school essay-contest winners who wrote about the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.; and more. The program will conclude with a panel discussion about the current racial tensions in the Princeton and Trenton communities, facilitated by Lance Liverman, Princeton Township committeeman. There is no charge to attend, but participants are encouraged to register by calling 609-497-2100, ext. 360, or email pelmi@ywcaprineton.org.

Friday, April 28
Meditation
Noon–1 p.m • Women’s Center Resource Room, Frist 242
Learn and practice meditation techniques that will help you regain your natural state of balance and equanimity, reduce stress, and focus fully on the present moment. Jill Gutowski, a certified yoga instructor, and co-director of Four Winds Yoga in Pennington, will facilitate the sessions which meet every Friday. Street clothing is appropriate. All are welcome. Cosponsored with the Frist Campus Center.

Friday, April 28
Take Back the Night
Time and Location TBA
Save the date and keep an eye out for details about this opportunity to speak out against sexual violence on campus and support victims of violence.

NOTE: Meditation with Jill Gutowski will not be held on Friday, April 14.