Student ID#: _____ Residential College: _____
Campus Address: _____ Campus Phone: _____ Email: _____
Home Address: _____
Home Phone: _____ Cell Phone: _____

II. Eligibility and Funding Criteria

Grants issued by the Department of Politics, Mamdouha S. Bobst Center for Peace and Justice, are available for internships in governmental or non-profit organizations geared towards peace and justice. Examples of internships the Bobst Center has supported include summer jobs with peace-related programs at the Center for Strategic and International Studies or the Woodrow Wilson International Center in Washington, D.C.; the Department of State; conflict resolution NGOs; and human rights organizations overseas.

Internships must be unpaid, full-time, and last at least eight weeks. The site of the internship may be in this country or abroad.

IMPORTANT: Princeton University policy states that the University will not fund or sponsor undergraduate student travel to countries on the U.S. State Department Warning List, but students who have a compelling educational reason to travel to such countries may submit a request for consideration for an individual exemption to Dean Nancy Kanach in the Office of International Programs. No University funds can be released to a student traveling to a country on the State Department Travel Warning List without this exemption.

Funding is limited.

After the internship is completed, the student and their internship supervisor are expected to submit reports to the Department of Politics.

III. Application Materials

If you are applying for internship funding, please submit a one-page description of the internship, in your own words. The description should explain the agency for which you will work, define your expected duties, and demonstrate the relationship of the internship to public service. You should also submit your Princeton transcript along with your application.

After receiving notification of your grant, but before receiving the funding, you must do the following:

- 1) Submit a letter of commitment from the sponsoring agency
- 2) Register on the University Travel Database (<http://www.princeton.edu/travel/database>)

You will be reminded of these requirements should you receive funding.

Submit 1 original and 4 photocopies of your application to: Gayle Brodsky, 132 Corwin Hall
