

Twisted Modernization: The Political Economy of Contemporary Spain

Pablo Beramendi*

Duke University

Carles Boix[†]

Princeton University

Table of Contents

*pablo.beramendi@duke.edu

[†]cboix@princeton.edu

1. Introduction. (Pablo Beramendi and Carles Boix)

Part I. The Long-Run

2. Gerschenkron in the Peninsula. (Carles Boix)

3. Industrialization and Labor Quality. (Jordi Domènech and Alfonso Herranz)

4. Fiscal Underdevelopment. (Pablo Beramendi and Dídac Queralt)

5. Constitutions: Exclusion, Collusion and Inclusion. (Ignacio Sánchez-Cuenca)

Part II. Elites

6. Who Governs? Regime Change and the Power of Business, Military and Political Elites in the Spanish 20th Century. (Álvaro La Parra-Pérez and Victoria Paniagua)

7. Money and Political Influence: The Political Economy of Spanish Banks. (Guillermo Rosas and Sebastián Lavezzolo)

8. Judicial Politics and Bureaucracies in Spain. (Joan-Josep Vallbé)

Part III. Not Quite There: Today's Challenges

9. Media and Democracy. (Pablo Fernández-Vázquez et al.)

10. Corruption. (Jordi Muñoz and Pilar Sorribas)

11. Inequality in the Long Run: Roots and Challenges. (Pablo Beramendi and Luis Guirola)

12. The Demographic Cliff. (Alícia Adserà and Mariona Lozano)

13. Territorial Conflict in Spain: Individual Preferences and Institutions. (Cesc Amat and Laia Balcells)

14. Conclusions (Pablo Beramendi and Carles Boix)