

Contents

	Page
Overview, Summary, and Introduction	1
Overview	1
summary	4
Record Quality	4
National Felon File	5
National Crime Information Center (NCIC)	6
Fingerprint Identification	6
waiting Periods	6
Overall Effectiveness	8
Other Record Check Realities	8
Introduction	10
The Debate Over Criminal Record Checks	13
The Proposals and Prospects for Automated Record Checks ...................0	19
Point-of-Sale (POS) Systems	19
How POS Checks Work	19
The Problem of Record Quality	21
The Problem of Positive Identification-the Promise of Live Scans	23
National Felons File	24
Smart Cards	26
Automated Record Checks and Waiting Periods	27
How Waiting Periods Work	27
State Computerized Criminal History (CCH) Files-A Key Prerequisite	28
Wide Variability in State CCH Systems	29
Problem offending	30
Challenge of Improving Record Quality	33
Crosscutting Issues*...........................	37
Value of Criminal Record Checks	37
Value of Waiting Periods for Record Checks	41
Value of Fingerprint Identification	45
Value of the National Fingerprint File/Interstate Identification Index (NFF/III)	48
Value of a Firearm Safety and Security Education Program	49

Box

Box	Page
A. Federal Firearms Purchaser Prohibitions	1

Figures

Figure	Page
1. Violent Crime by Type of Weapon, 1989	10
2. Number of Federal Firearms Licenses, 1975-90	14
3. Automated Criminal Record Checks of Firearm Purchasers: An Overview	20
4. Telephone "Instant" Check by Gun Dealers	22
5. Automation of State Criminal History Records, 1989	29
6. Final Dispositions in State Criminal History Files, 1989	29
7. Types of Criminal History Information Submitted to State Repositories, 1989	34

Figure	Page
8. Interstate Movement of Firearms: The Case of Boston, MA, October 1989 to June 1990	38
9. Interstate Movement of Firearms: The Case of New York City, 1987-90	39
10. Homicides by Type of Firearm, 1989	40
11. State-by-State Capabilities To Support Automated Firearm Purchaser Checks: Automated Records and Final Dispositions, 1989	43
12. State-by-State Capabilities To Support Automated Firearm Purchaser Checks: Automated Name Index and Felony Flags, 1989	44
13. Arrests Supported by Fingerprints in State Criminal History Files, 1989	47
14. Firearm Death Rates per 100,000 Population, Males 15 to 19 Years Old, 1979-88	49

Tables

Table	Page
1. Maximum Time Periods Required for Initial Firearm Purchase by State Resident	27
2. Average Time Required To Receive and Enter Final Dispositions Into State Criminal History Records, 1989	34
3. Average Time Required To Receive and Enter Arrest Information Into State Criminal History Records, 1989	34